

Circulation Biggest Ever

The circulation of the Daily Post-Dispatch in St. Louis compared season by season is greater than ever before in the history of this newspaper. This also is true of the Sunday Post-Dispatch. "Circulation books open to all." "First in Everything."

VOL. 70. NO. 205.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

The Only Evening Paper in St. Louis With the Associated Press News Service

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1918—12 PAGES.

NIGHT
EDITIONPRICE: St. Louis and Suburbs, One Cent.
Elsewhere, Two Cents.DAYLIGHT SAVING MEASURE GOES TO THE PRESIDENT

Senate Approves House Bill
Providing That All Clocks
Be Moved Forward an Hour March 31 and Set Back Oct. 27.

Adoption of European Plan Was Urged Particularly to Increase Food Production Through Gardening.

Sponsors of Measure Say
That $40,000,000 Alone
Will Be Saved in Nation's Lighting Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—Daylight saving now awaits only President Wilson's approval. House amendments to the bill, requiring all timepieces to be advanced one hour beginning the last Sunday in March, were accepted today by the Senate. The time would be changed back on the last Sunday in October. The Senate had proposed to make the dates April 30 and September 30. The general plan proposed was adopted last year in many European countries with marked success and has the approval of virtually all industries and commercial establishments in the United States. Its adoption is particularly urged by the National War Garden Commission for its value to war gardeners.

Five Zones of Time.
Inasmuch as commercial and labor organizations the country over have petitioned for the bill, Congress expects a general agreement with the law everywhere. Five zones of time are to be fixed by order of the Interstate Commerce Commission. But it is directed in the bill to make "due regard" to the railroad classifications. The unofficial understanding is that no important change is to be made in present arrangements. There will be Eastern, Central, Mountain, Pacific and Alaskan time.

Amused by Bill.
Members from agricultural states laughed at the measure. "I once heard," said Thomas of Kentucky, "of Joshua ordering the sun to stand still three days—or hours—as a war measure. That must have been the first of the freak notions urged upon the people as war measures. I used to think my State Legislature had the foulest ideas in the world. But I never tried to change the sun in its orbit."

Wingo of Arkansas asked why another bill was not put in fixing the freezing point at 45 degrees, so people would not feel so cold. Farmers he said, needed no artificial clock tinkering to get them up. Most of the unfavorable votes were from farming districts.

ADVANTAGES OF DAYLIGHT SAVING
PLAN TO WORKERS

Under the daylight saving bill, as approved by Congress, St. Louisans who have been accustomed to rising at 7 a. m., will in reality rise at 8 a. m. on April 1, the first working day under the new system, but the clocks will play an April fool joke on them by making it seem to be an hour later.

The sun, which is outside our Federal jurisdiction, will follow its old schedule. On April 1 it will rise in St. Louis at 5:46, actual time, though the clocks will show it at 6:46, so that a person rising at 7 a. m. by the clock will be up 17 minutes after sunrise. Except in the case of very early risers it will not be necessary to "get up in the dark" to save daylight.

The saving will be most noticeable at the end of the day. Those who start their work at 8 a. m. and quit at 5 p. m. will follow the same schedule. The clock is concerned, but in reality, according to solar time, they will be starting at 7 a. m. and quitting at 4 p. m. The sun on April 1 will set at 6:23, actual time, which will be 7:23 by the clock, or two hours and 23 minutes after quitting time, whereas, under the old system, the working day would end only one hour and 23 minutes before sunset.

The saving of daylight, with its possibilities for extra recreation between the end of the working day and bedtime, will be more noticeable as the season advances and will reach its climax on June 21, the longest day of the year.

The sun on June 21 will rise at 4:24, actual time, or 5:24 clock time.

Continued on Page 2, Column 6.

FORMER CZAR DULL AND UNSOCIABLE,
HIS WIFE WRITES

Imprisonment Affecting Mental Capacities, Says Letter Giving Details of Life in Tobolsk.
PETROGRAD, Jan. 10 (By A. P.).—Imprisonment has affected greatly the mental capacities of the former Emperor Nicholas II, according to a letter from the former Empress Alexandra, written from Tobolsk to one of her former maids of honor in Petrograd which has been intercepted. In it the former Empress gives a detailed account of the royal family's life in Tobolsk.

The former Emperor, she writes, seems to have grown dull and very unsociable. He does not evince the slightest interest in current events, has ceased to think about the crown and only wants to be allowed to live in his own way. His only regret is that he cannot live in his old palace at Livadia in the Crimea. Nicholas dresses in civilian clothes and spends much of his time with his son, Alexis. He corresponds only with his mother. The former Empress declares her children have become quite accustomed to their new position. Tatiana spends much time reading French literature, particularly novels, as do others in the family. Olga is much interested in housekeeping and spends most of her time in household duties. Alexis is busy with his studies and desires to travel.

Regret over her separation from her best friends is expressed by the Empress, but she writes that she and the entire family welcomed the news of peace in Russia. She declares she hopes that with peace the Romanoff family will be permitted to go to some town in Central Russia where life is more lively than in Tobolsk.

RECORD OF NATURALIZATION OF ADOLPHUS BUSCH FOUND

It Establishes American Citizenship of His Widow, Who Is Returning to United States.
A record of the naturalization of Adolphus Busch was found in the archives of the Court of Criminal Correction yesterday, thus establishing the American citizenship of his widow, Lily Busch, who is returning to the United States from Germany, after being absent from St. Louis since May, 1914. She was in Germany when the war started. The establishing of her citizenship was necessary in determining whether the Custodian of Alien Property should continue to administer her income from her husband's large estate after her return to America. Busch's record of naturalization could not be found, but the court record shows that he became a citizen Feb. 19, 1867.

When receiving his naturalization papers, Busch swore allegiance to the Grand Duke of Hesse-Darmstadt. The German empire had not then been formed.

NEWPORT DRY ORDER IN EFFECT

Navy Closes 49 Saloons and Stores Near Training Station.
NEWPORT, R. I., March 16 (By A. P.).—The Navy Department order prohibiting the sale of liquor within five miles of the Newport Naval Station went into effect today, with the result that 49 saloons and wholesale liquor stores in this city were forced out of business.

Efforts by dealers to gain an extension of time so that they might dispose of their stocks more profitably were unavailing.

Germany's Condition Today

Man Power, Food Supply, Morale, Health, Her Liabilities and Assets in the War

Reports from Post-Dispatch observers WITHIN and without the Empire who have spent five months in gathering reliable information.

The POST-DISPATCH will begin NEXT SUNDAY daily publication of a highly important and informative series of articles, prepared with a view to show the state of German power and resistance. The first will be

A General Review of the Empire's Morale

Following this publication, an article will appear daily until the whole series shall have been printed.

Ambassador Gerard Tells How Germany Keeps Europe's Little Neutrals in Terror

An informative and timely presentation of the condition that has made it necessary for the allies to conscript the Dutch ships and use them in supplying the Dutch themselves with food.

Exclusively Tomorrow's

Sunday Post-Dispatch

Order Your Copy Today

HOLLAND SAID TO HAVE AGREED TO USE OF HER SHIPS

Acceptance of Demand of U. S. and Allies for Service in Danger Zone Reported.

CRAFT IN U. S. PORTS HELD

Guarded Against Escape Prior to Probable Taking Over on Monday.

AMSTERDAM, March 16 (By A. P.).—The Associated Press hears on excellent authority that the Dutch Government has accepted the demand of the allied Governments relating to the use of Dutch ships in the danger zone.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—With the exception of two steamers, the United States is holding all Dutch ships now in American ports to prevent their escape, pending probable requisition Monday.

No bunker licenses will be issued for their sailing, it was learned today, until they are taken over either by commandeering or by negotiation.

The fact that the United States and Great Britain had determined to seize all Dutch ships in their ports Monday unless Holland agreed before that time to turn them over under a voluntary arrangement was made known Thursday.

The two ships which will be permitted to sail are the Nieuw Amsterdam, which will take a cargo of foodstuffs and a number of passengers to Holland, and the liner Oranje, which will take a party of Dutch colonial officers from an American Pacific port to the Dutch East Indies.

In withholding bunker licenses to other Dutch ships, the American Government intends to take no chances on some of them getting to Dutch ports and thus escaping the requisition. License was denied yesterday to the Dutch ship Ophio, which wanted to sail from one American Pacific port to another.

NAME OF ALVIN SMILEY IN LATEST U. S. CASUALTY LIST

Man Wounded Believed to Be Hannibal Soldier Who Got War Cross—Parents Have No Word.

The name of Alvin Smiley, which appears among the slightly wounded in the latest casualty list from France, is the same as that of a Hannibal (Mo.) youth, formerly of St. Louis, who on March 3 was decorated with the Croix de Guerre (French war cross) by Premier Clemenceau of France for gallant service.

Although the wounded man is believed to be David Alvin Smiley, it was stated at the home of his parents at Hannibal this morning that no message had been received from the War Department telling that he was wounded.

David Alvin Smiley received the cross of war for running messages from the line to the artillery during a gas attack and through a barrage. He is a private in the artillery. Until five years ago the Smiley family lived here at 2849 Magnolia avenue.

FURTHER LIMITATION OF WHEAT CONSUMPTION PLANNED

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—Further limitation of wheat consumption in the United States is under consideration by the food administration to make certain that the subnormal visible supply will tide over the American people and their allies until the next harvest.

The seriousness of the wheat situation was shown today by a Department of Agriculture report on the supply in country elevators and mills, which is supplemented by a frank admission at the food administration that existing flour stocks are only 30 per cent of the normal quantity needed until July 1. Food administration officials thought the department's estimate of 150,000,000 bushels of wheat in elevators and on farms March 1 was optimistic and said their best information was that 125,000,000 bushels was the greatest amount that could be expected.

Allies have been promised 90,000,000 bushels of grain between Jan. 1 and July 1.

Cuts Throat, Then Jumps Into River.
ROCK ISLAND, ILL., March 16. Klaus Johnson, a farmhand, cut his throat twice, almost severing his head, then jumped into the Edwards River, at Matherville, near here, yesterday. He leaves a wife and three small children.

Gen. Von Gallwitz
Commands New German
Army Group in West

BERLIN, via London, March 16 (By A. P.).—The army headquarters' statement today discloses the presence on the western front of a new army group under the command of Gen. von Gallwitz. The statement says: "Army groups of the German Crown Prince, Gen. von Gallwitz, and Duke Albrecht—near Rheims, on both banks of the Meuse and on the Lorraine front, near Mulbach and Blametz, are fighting with heavier artillery throughout the day. On both sides of Ornes it continued to be heavy during the night."

When Field Marshal von Hindenburg assumed supreme command he divided the Western front into commands under Prince Rupprecht, the German Crown Prince and Duke Albrecht. The front of Gen. von Gallwitz apparently is between Verdun and the German border. It may include the sectors held by the American troops, although at the present time they are being held by the German troops.

An enemy patrol was discovered this morning in the American wire entanglements northwest of Toul. The Germans were driven off with rifle fire and a number of them were hit. One body was left hanging in the wire.

American snipers have been very busy on both sectors. East of Luneville six enemy snipers were silenced by the Americans. On the Toul front last night and today considerable talking and even singing was heard within the enemy lines. Several times the Germans stuck their heads over the parapets to see what the Americans were doing. Each time a bullet from an American rifle went in the direction of the head. After several of these exchanges the Germans stopped looking.

PRESIDENT EXPECTED TO MAKE STATEMENT ON RUSSIA

Intimated in Official Circles That the Declaration Will Come Soon.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—There were intimations in official circles today that President Wilson might make an early declaration on the Russian situation.

It was not indicated what might be its form or its manner of delivery. America's attitude toward intervention in Siberia by Japan, whether she acts independently or in conjunction with the Allies, has not been changed, it was said today at the State Department.

Officials remained reticent regarding Japan's expression of her intentions, but it was said that an exchange of views was continuing on a course. It was suggested that a decision might be delayed until the new Japanese Ambassador, Count Ishii, reaches America.

It is known that the United States has been doubtful of the need of intervention by Japan, many officials of this Government fearing that such action might bring together the various factions in Russia to combat the Japanese even if they were supported by the armies of the Entente and America and however good their intentions.

Japanese Premier Says He Is Concerned Over China Trouble.

LONDON, March 16 (By A. P.).—In reply to a question in the Diet yesterday the Japanese Premier, Count Terauchi, said, according to a Reuters dispatch from Tokyo, that the tension prevailing between North and South China was the source of serious concern for Japan's interests, but that Japan would take no steps in the way of mediation.

The Premier characterized as untrue a report that a small body of Entente troops had been dispatched toward Siberia.

TEMPERATURE TO BE ABOVE AVERAGE ALL NEXT WEEK

THE TEMPERATURES.
1 a. m. 32° 2 p. m. 38° 3 p. m. 42° 4 p. m. 48° 5 p. m. 52° 6 p. m. 58° 7 p. m. 62° 8 p. m. 68° 9 p. m. 72° 10 p. m. 78° 11 p. m. 82°

Official forecast for St. Louis and vicinity—Fair and warmer tonight and tomorrow. Lowest temperature tonight above the freezing point. Monday, fair with moderate temperatures.

WOMEN HIT BY "SPITBALLS" SUE

Pickets Were Meant for Strike
Mrs. Gertrude Allen and Mrs. Virginia Harris filed suit in the Circuit Court today against the May Department Stores Co. for $5000 damages each on account of having been struck by spitballs (wads of paper) meant for strike pickets at the Famous & Barr store.

They allege that on March 7 they were leaving the store when pickets on the sidewalk were being pelled with spitballs from second floor windows and that by reason of being hit by some of the projectiles they were humiliated and embarrassed, their nerves suffered a shock and their clothing was damaged.

FOG AND SMOKE IMPEDE TRAFFIC

A wild movement of less than four miles an hour, combined with a high air pressure, clouded the city in a mixture of fog and smoke, between 9 and 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Downtown traffic moved slowly and street cars and automobiles used headlights.

HUNDREDS OF BIG AMERICAN SHELLS
HURLED AT ENEMY

Artillery Firing in Toul Sector Batters German Lives and Observation Posts.

ENEMY PATROL ROUTED

Teuton Prisoner, Trying to Escape, Stopped by American Sentry.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 13 (By A. P.).—Active artillery firing continues on the American sectors northwest of Toul and east of Luneville. A considerable number of shells have been falling intermittently on the Toul front.

An enemy patrol was discovered this morning in the American wire entanglements northwest of Toul. The Germans were driven off with rifle fire and a number of them were hit. One body was left hanging in the wire.

American snipers have been very busy on both sectors. East of Luneville six enemy snipers were silenced by the Americans. On the Toul front last night and today considerable talking and even singing was heard within the enemy lines. Several times the Germans stuck their heads over the parapets to see what the Americans were doing. Each time a bullet from an American rifle went in the direction of the head. After several of these exchanges the Germans stopped looking.

Escaped Prisoner Caught.

At one place last night an American sentry saw a figure slinking through the darkness. The man halted when challenged and was taken into custody. He was found to have escaped and was trying to get back to his own lines. The German was turned over to the French authorities. The place where the German was captured was not far from where an American prisoner was being held. The German was found to be a prisoner of war who had been captured by the Americans.

The American artillery in the Toul sector again battered the German lines and observation posts and caused an explosion, probably of an ammunition dump. Hundreds of big shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

The visibility was poor today, but many airplanes were up. The shells were sent into three new German trenches, where weapons resembling gas projectors had been erected.

Wagner Strike Is Ended;
Workers Return Monday

2000 Agree to Go Back When Assured by U. S. Officer Wage Differences Will Be Settled in 30 Days.

Striking employees of the Wagner Electric Co., numbering more than 2000, will return to work Monday. The strike came to an end today as the result of mediation by Maj. Rogers, a representative of the Ordnance Bureau of the War Department, who addressed the men at New Club Hall in the forenoon and assured them that a Federal Commission will adjust their demands as to wages and hours if they find it impossible to reach an agreement with the company in the next 30 days.

The men had been out since March 6, demanding recognition of unions and an increase of 40 per cent over the present scale of pay.

The strikers, after the meeting, said Maj. Rogers gave them these assurances:

That the men discharged for joining the union shall be reinstated.

That the company shall confer with committees representing the different departments, and that, if an agreement on wages, hours and conditions is not reached within 30 days, a Federal Commission will send representatives here to adjust those matters.

That there shall be no discrimination by the company against employees because of their affiliation with labor organizations.

That the plant shall be an "open shop."

That, if the men would accept the above propositions, the company would also accept them.

The vote was said by strikers to have been virtually unanimous in favor of returning to work under the conditions named, all men to return Monday morning, and continue work under the open shop principle.

United States Government representatives have been in St. Louis to make a special study of this strike, as it was said to involve interference with Government work. The company at its main factory at 6400 Plymouth avenue and at several branch factories had been working day and night on Government munitions.

In inducing the men to return to work it was represented that their idleness was interfering with these Government contracts and thus hampering the efficiency of the United States in the war.

LIGGETT & MYERS
ATTORNEY BEATEN

Fred L. English Tells of Attack Near Plant in Attempt to Save Woman From Crowd.

Fred L. English, 4465 Forest Park boulevard, a member of the District Appeals Draft Board, appeared at the office of the Prosecuting Attorney this morning with cuts and bruises on his face, his clothing disheveled and his automobile covered with scratches, and described an encounter which he said he had at 5 a. m. near the plant of the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., with men and women strikers from that plant. He is attorney for the company.

English said as he was leaving the plant he saw men and women strikers and sympathizers roughly handling Mrs. Sarah Reid, 44, 1051 South Vandewater avenue, a non-union employee, who had run into a grocery store at Tower Grove and Hunt avenues. He ran in and tried to rescue her, he said, whereupon a man hit him in the mouth and men and women set upon him and beat him. He related that he and Mrs. Reid got into his automobile, and as he was driving away, a piece of tile, weighing several pounds, was thrown through the windshield.

Warrants Are Refused.

English called policemen, who arrested Max Stennum, 30, 4119 Blaine avenue; Selma Williams, 15, 4248 Hunt avenue; Miss Onie Kelly, 25, 4248 Hunt, and Miss Goldie Huff, 28, 4064 Manchester avenue, whom English identified as being among the assailants.

He applied at the office of the Prosecuting Attorney for warrants charging the three adults with destruction of property, assault, assault and battery and inciting to riot, and his applications were successively refused. He carried the tire with him, as evidence.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Wilson said the evidence was insufficient to support a serious charge. Those under arrest were then charged with peace disturbance, and will be arraigned in police court.

WOMEN HIT BY "SPITBALLS" SUE

Pickets Were Meant for Strike
Mrs. Gertrude Allen and Mrs. Virginia Harris filed suit in the Circuit Court today against the May Department Stores Co. for $5000 damages each on account of having been struck by spitballs (wads of paper) meant for strike pickets at the Famous & Barr store.

They allege that on March 7 they were leaving the store when pickets on the sidewalk were being pelled with spitballs from second floor windows and that by reason of being hit by some of the projectiles they were humiliated and embarrassed, their nerves suffered a shock and their clothing was damaged.

FOG AND SMOKE IMPEDE TRAFFIC

A wild movement of less than four miles an hour, combined with a high air pressure, clouded the city in a mixture of fog and smoke, between 9 and 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Downtown traffic moved slowly and street cars and automobiles used headlights.

RUSSIAN PARTIES
SPLIT ON RATIFYING
OF PEACE TREATY

Social Revolutionists Said to Have Threatened to Resign Moment Pact Is Approved by Soviets' Congress.

Caucasus Government Refuses to Indorse Treaty—Wants to Make Own Terms With Turkey.

Germans Complete Occupation of Odessa—Anti-Jewish Riots Preceded Their Entry Into City.

LONDON, March 16 (By A. P.).—A conflict between the Maximilian and Social Revolutionist members of the Council of People's Commissaries occurred in Moscow Friday, according to a report received here from the Petrograd Telegraph Agency.

The Social Revolutionists refused to ratify the treaty of peace with Germany and said they were resolved to resign the moment the treaty is ratified by the All-Russian Congress of Soviets.

Final action on the German peace treaty apparently has not yet been taken by the All-Russian Congress of Soviets at Moscow. While dispatches dated Thursday, from Petrograd, reported the Congress had decided overwhelmingly to ratify the treaty, the foregoing dispatch indicates that Russia has not yet been committed to the German terms.

Fresh Disorders Reported in German Fleet Off And Islands.

PETROGRAD, March 16 (By A. P.).—Fresh disorders have occurred in the German fleet off the And Islands, according to the Russian Military newspaper, Krasnyy Armia.

The Germans, it is added, have occupied Rastdelnaya station on the Odessa Railway line and the evacuation of Odessa and Nikoliev is proceeding. The German Admiral, Siegel, has been appointed commander of Odessa. Before the occupation of Odessa by the Germans anti-Jewish riots occurred.

German authorities have announced that German commissions with the power of veto will be appointed. The Russian ministries to control the fulfillment of the treaty of peace.

Caucasus Government Refuses to Indorse Peace Treaty.

PETROGRAD, March 16 (By A. P.).—The Caucasus Government has issued a statement in which it refuses to indorse the Brest-Litovsk peace treaty, which cedes Kara, Baku and Ardahan to Turkey, and declares that peace with Turkey can only be signed by the Caucasus Government, which has sent its own delegation to Trebizond to discuss peace.

In view of the repeated violation by both the Germans and the Russians of the line of demarcation fixed for the Pskov front, the Germans have demanded the establishment of a new line 10 versts east of the present Russian position. A German official explanation of this change in the line is that it is necessary to strengthen Germany's strategic position.

Turks Reported to Have Occupied Entire Baku Region.

PETROGRAD, Thursday, March 14 (By A. P.).—Turkish troops are reported to have occupied the entire Baku region in the Caucasus.

It is also reported that German and Ukrainian troops are continuing operations in Southern Russia, particularly in the direction of Orsha and Mohilev. An important enemy column is said to have occupied Tchernigov.

Baku, near the southern end of the Caspian Sea, is the center of one of the most productive petroleum districts in the world. Turkish troops were last reported near Trebizond, on the Black Sea, and 500 miles west of Baku. To have reached Baku the Turks would either have to go through the Caucasus from Trebizond or else to march through Persia and approach Baku from the south. The dispatch may refer to Batoum on the Black Sea, 100 miles east of Trebizond, instead of Baku.

Rumanian Cabinet Resigns.

LONDON, March 16 (By A. P.).—A Reuters dispatch from Jassy, Rumania, says the Cabinet of M. Averescu has resigned.

Hertling Stands by Vote Bill

Quoted as Saying He Stakes Position on Equal Franchise.
AMSTERDAM, March 16 (By A. P.).—"I stand or fall for the bill for the equal franchise. I have pledged my word and never in my life have I broken it."

Thus Count von Hertling, the Imperial German Chancellor, is quoted by a correspondent in Berlin as having replied to a question regarding the Chancellor's intentions in the event of the Prussian franchise bill being rejected.

Holland Prohibits Steamers From Sailing for England.
COPENHAGEN, March 16 (By A. P.).—A dispatch to the Politika from Amsterdam states that the Dutch Government yesterday prohibited Dutch steamers from sailing for England.

Suffrage Beaten in Mississippi.
JACKSON, Miss., March 16 (By A. P.).—An amendment to the State Constitution conferring suffrage on women was lost in the Senate yesterday on a tie vote, 21 to 21.

Rumanian Cabinet Resigns.
LONDON, March 16 (By A. P.).—A Reuters dispatch from Jassy, Rumania, says the Cabinet of M. Averescu has resigned.

FIRST TIME MORE CIRCULATION LAST SUNDAY, 402,171 FIRST TIME MORE THAN 400,000

SOVIETS RECEIVE WILSON'S MESSAGE WITH APPLAUSE

Immediately Adopt Resolution Expressing Appreciation for Sympathy Tendered.

LENINE GETS OVATION

Premier Emphasizes Necessity of Signing Peace Treaty—Bolshevik Control Congress.

MOSCOW, Thursday, March 14 (By A. P.).—President Wilson's message of sympathy to the Russian people was received with marked applause when it was read tonight at the opening session of the All-Russian Congress of Soviets. The Congress immediately adopted a resolution of appreciation. The resolution reads:

"The all-Russian Congress of Soviets expresses its appreciation to the American people and first of all the laboring and exploited classes in the United States for the message sent by President Wilson to the Congress of Soviets in this time when the Russian Socialist Republic is living through the most difficult trials."

The Russian republic uses the occasion of the message from President Wilson to express to all people who are dying and suffering from the horrors of this imperialistic war, its warm sympathy and firm conviction that the happy time is near when the laboring masses in all bourgeois countries will throw off the capitalist yoke and establish a Socialist state of society, which is the only one capable of assuring a permanent and just peace as well as the culture and well being of all who toil.

The Congress is being held in the splendid banquet hall of the nobility club where former Emperors often were entertained. Soldiers, sailors and peasants formed a majority of the 1164 delegates present. M. Sverdlov, chairman of the Central Executive Committee of the Congress presided. The Bolshevik members number 732 and there are 38 Social Revolutionists of the left.

Premier Lenin made the principal speech and received a great ovation. He reviewed the history of the revolution and emphasized the necessity of signing a peace treaty. M. Tchitcherine, the acting Foreign Minister, read the peace treaty. It was decided that peace should be considered first and after that the permanent removal of the capital from Petrograd and the election of a new Central Executive Committee. Strong forces of guards were about the hall but there were no attempts at disorder. Moscow is quiet, Bolshevik control apparently being absolute.

MASSED FLEET AIR RAID HAS GIVEN WAY TO SOLO ATTACK

London Expert Says Neither Guns
Nor Defensive Planes Can Stop
Man Who Knows Business.

LONDON, March 16 (By A. P.).—"Both the Germans and ourselves have to admit that neither guns nor defensive planes can always stop a raider who knows his business and is equipped with a first-class machine gun," writes an aeronautical expert commenting in the Evening Standard on the recent air raids on London. "But there is a tremendous change in the conditions governing the raid as compared with those existing less than a year ago. Of the many air-planes which may now approach London very few indeed get through. The massed fleet raid has given way to attacks by single machines or very small groups. Never again are we likely to have the humiliating spectacle of a large formation of enemy machines moving with impunity above our capital."

"The single or small group of raiders is most elusive, and no agency yet put into practice has been able to stop this form of attack. The heaviest barrage is now thrown over by the daring pilot, and so, in consequence, the sky space and so defective is visibility at night, that great fleets of pursuers often fail to bring him down. But our airplanes are growing more skillful in breaking the fleets, and with further experience, aided by more liberal use of very fast machines, we should be able to give every solo raider a terrific chase from the coast to London and back again."

FIRE DAMAGES BED WAREHOUSE

Loss to South Ninth Street Plant Estimated at $50,000.

Fire of unexplained origin in a box car on a siding in the rear of the Simmons bed co. warehouse, at 824 South Ninth street, last night spread to the building, a four-story brick structure. It had reached all parts of the building before it was extinguished, and, according to firemen, virtually all the stock of beds and bedding was damaged.

The police estimated the damage at about $50,000, though Miss I. C. Davis of 3665 Shaw avenue, assistant to the manager, declined to place an estimate on the loss. Gilbert L. Price of 5 Lenox place, the manager, is out of the city.

El Mares Pedro Cigar, Co.
Quality and also warrants the price.
—ADV.

Gen. Theodore S. Peck Dies

BURLINGTON, Vt., March 16 (By A. P.).—Gen. Theodore S. Peck, president of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, died at his residence here yesterday.

Taking Over of Dutch Shipping Is Justified Under Law of Nations

STERLING B. EDMUNDS.

Lecturer on International Law, St. Louis University Law School.

THE proposal of the United States and Great Britain to take over and impress into service something like a million tons of Dutch ships lying in belligerent ports, while apparently a mere act of might is, nevertheless, amply justified in principle under international law.

"The general principle that neutral property in belligerent territory shares the liabilities of property belonging to subjects of the state is clear and indisputable," says Prof. William E. Hall, a noted English authority, "and no objection can be made to its effect upon property which is associated, either permanently or for a considerable time, with the belligerent territory. Along with the right to use there is also the right to destroy such property, in both cases, of course, with the implied obligation to compensate the owners."

"This right is known technically as the right of angary, and the most conspicuous modern instances of its exercise were those of Germany herself during the Franco-German War of 1870-1871. In one of these instances Germany seized between 600 and 700 railroad cars belonging to the Swiss Central Railway and impressed them into use for the transportation of its forces; in another case seven colliers had come up the Seine to Rouen under a German permit, and, having discharged their cargoes, were boarded by parties of the German military, who notified the captain in each case that the ship was required by the German military authorities. The captains protested that their vessels were neutral vessels, pointing to the English flags, but they were nevertheless seized. The vessels were scuttled in the Seine, with the object of blocking the approach of French gunboats. The flag of one of the ships (the Sylph) is said to have been trampled upon and used as a boot wiper by the party which boarded it. The crews reached Newhaven in a state of destitution and English public opinion was intensely aroused."

The British law officers did not deny the rightfulness of the seizure of the ships, but a bitter controversy with Germany did ensue with respect to the manner of the exercise of the right. Bismarck expressed regret and admitted the claim of the owners and crews to indemnification, promising that if excesses had been committed which were not justified by the necessity of defense, the guilty persons would be punished. He contended further "that the measure in question, however ex-

PERSHING'S CASUALTY LIST HAS 100 NAMES

Wounded Arkansas Lieutenant Among 62 Announced by War Department.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—The names of 62 soldiers on Gen. Pershing's latest and largest casualty list of more than 100 names were made public last night. The list was made public last night. The list was made public last night.

The great majority are names of men slightly wounded. The nearly 50 names withheld contained those of several men killed in action, but most of them were of men slightly wounded.

Six Officers in List.
Lieut. Richard H. Whitner died of accident. Lieut. Louis W. Ross and John W. Apperson were wounded in action, and Lieut. William P. Bledsoe, Granville M. Burrow and William C. Danbey were slightly wounded.

The first list follows:
Killed in action: Privates William Ellinger, Marshall H. Jarrett, Joseph E. White, Joan de Posta Molles. Died of disease: Sergt. Le Roy W. Miller, Privates Ted A. Butler, Carl Larsen.

Died of accident: Lieut. Richard H. Whitner, Private Dewin C. Todd. Died of disease: Corp. Charles M. McCord, meningitis; Privates Ernest Edwards, pneumonia; Edmund G. Holmes, meningitis; Einar Reinhold Moller, meningitis; Joseph A. Yorkes, pneumonia.

Wounded severely: Sergt. Otto C. Leach, Privates R. C. Camick, Wil-

No Raise
In Price
Of This Great Remedy

CASCARA QUININE
The standard cure for 20 years—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opium —cure cold in 24 hours—no drowsiness—no headache—no nausea—no constipation—no loss of appetite—no loss of sleep—no loss of strength—no loss of color—no loss of vitality—no loss of energy—no loss of power—no loss of ability—no loss of skill—no loss of knowledge—no loss of wisdom—no loss of judgment—no loss of discretion—no loss of self-control—no loss of self-respect—no loss of self-esteem—no loss of self-love—no loss of self-hatred—no loss of self-doubt—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—no
loss of self-failure—no
loss of self-sorrow—no
loss of self-pain—no
loss of self-suffering—no
loss of self-grief—no
loss of self-anguish—no
loss of self-torment—no
loss of self-humiliation—no
loss of self-dignity—no
loss of self-honor—no
loss of self-glory—no
loss of self-pride—no
loss of self-ambition—no
loss of self-aspiration—no
loss of self-idealism—no
loss of self-romanticism—no
loss of self-dreaming—no
loss of self-imagining—no
loss of self-fantasying—no
loss of self-delirium—no
loss of self-madness—no
loss of self-craziness—no
loss of self-foolishness—no
loss of self-stupidity—no
loss of self-ignorance—no
loss of self-deception—no
loss of self-delusion—no
loss of self-illusion—no
loss of self-mistake—no
loss of self-error—

Humor From the Trenches

Drawn by Capt. Bruce Bainsfather of the British Army in France.

Copyright 1918 by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World)

THE POINT OF VIEW.

Old Alf: If we don't hurry up and start something soon, the Americans will think this is not much of a war.

STORES REJECT CLERKS' PLAN TO END STRIKE

Union's Member of Conference Committee Gives Detail of Employers' Terms.

from preventing sales. The petition on which the supplementary bill was issued alleges that "two wrecking crews or educational committees" are maintained by the strikers, and that union officials are soliciting funds from competing grocers. The defendants are ordered to show cause March 20 why the injunction should not be made permanent.

U. S. AIRPLANE PRODUCTION PROGRAM 60 DAYS BEHIND

Battle Machines, However, Will Be in Service With Pershing's Forces by July.

WASHINGTON, March 16 (By A. P.).—American built battle planes will be in France by July in sufficient quantity to insure air protection of sectors then held by American troops. This statement rests on the highest authority and was made last night with recognition of dispatch appointments that have hampered the air program.

The airplane production program in the United States is today substantially 60 days behind what has been hoped for by the most sanguine officials. The foreign contracts, which were to have provided the initial fighting equipment for Gen. Pershing's air forces are still further behind. There is every prospect, however, that some of the delay can be overcome.

WOMAN'S HANDBAG SNATCHED

Two Others Report Robberies as They Walked for Cars.

Miss Louise Zimmerman of 3725A Wyoming street told the police that when she was waiting for a Fourth street car at Walnut street last evening a man snatched her handbag containing $25, three rings and receipts for $25 which she had paid on a Liberty Bond.

ARCHBISHOP AT HIGH MASS

Archbishop Glennon will preside at a solemn high mass tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church, Sixth and Biddle streets, in honor of the feast of St. Patrick. The Rev. G. V. Cleary, a member of the Dominican Order, will preach the sermon. St. Patrick's day also will be observed at Holy Rosary Church where the Rev. Michael J. O'Connor, S. J., pastor of the College Church, will preach. The Rev. Timothy Dempsey is pastor of St. Patrick's Church.

Supplementary Injunction Issued Against Kroger Strikers.

In a supplementary injunction issued yesterday by Judge Sanborn of the United States Circuit Court, St. Louis, the injunction against the Kroger strikers was extended to include the use of insulting language is prohibited.

The original injunction, issued yesterday, merely restrained them

from preventing sales. The petition on which the supplementary bill was issued alleges that "two wrecking crews or educational committees" are maintained by the strikers, and that union officials are soliciting funds from competing grocers. The defendants are ordered to show cause March 20 why the injunction should not be made permanent.

The airplane production program in the United States is today substantially 60 days behind what has been hoped for by the most sanguine officials. The foreign contracts, which were to have provided the initial fighting equipment for Gen. Pershing's air forces are still further behind. There is every prospect, however, that some of the delay can be overcome.

The airplane production program in the United States is today substantially 60 days behind what has been hoped for by the most sanguine officials. The foreign contracts, which were to have provided the initial fighting equipment for Gen. Pershing's air forces are still further behind. There is every prospect, however, that some of the delay can be overcome.

WOMAN'S HANDBAG SNATCHED

Two Others Report Robberies as They Walked for Cars.

Miss Louise Zimmerman of 3725A Wyoming street told the police that when she was waiting for a Fourth street car at Walnut street last evening a man snatched her handbag containing $25, three rings and receipts for $25 which she had paid on a Liberty Bond.

ARCHBISHOP AT HIGH MASS

Archbishop Glennon will preside at a solemn high mass tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in St. Patrick's Church, Sixth and Biddle streets, in honor of the feast of St. Patrick. The Rev. G. V. Cleary, a member of the Dominican Order, will preach the sermon. St. Patrick's day also will be observed at Holy Rosary Church where the Rev. Michael J. O'Connor, S. J., pastor of the College Church, will preach. The Rev. Timothy Dempsey is pastor of St. Patrick's Church.

Supplementary Injunction Issued Against Kroger Strikers.

In a supplementary injunction issued yesterday by Judge Sanborn of the United States Circuit Court, St. Louis, the injunction against the Kroger strikers was extended to include the use of insulting language is prohibited.

The original injunction, issued yesterday, merely restrained them

CONSIDERATION OF U. R. COMPROMISE DEFERRED A WEEK

Bill With Amendments Will Be Special Order for Council, Sitting as Committee of Whole.

GIVES 31-YEAR FRANCHISE

Mill Tax Is Abolished and Right of State to Regulate Fares Is Recognized.

The Board of Aldermen decided yesterday afternoon to postpone action on the United Railways "compromise" bill until next Friday, when the bill, with the amendments ratified by the Board of Public Service, will be taken up by the Board of Business before a committee of the whole after the regular meeting.

Efforts were made by Alderman Hart to have the bill returned to the Aldermanic Committee on Public Utilities for further consideration, but this was objected to by Chairman Barney L. Schwartz, who declared it was no longer a question of details but one of policy as to whether the Board of Aldermen should remit the United Railways' mill and franchise taxes.

A motion by Alderman Hall to have the bill come before the board acting in committee of the whole after the regular meeting next week, was then adopted and discussion of the measure ended. There was no other debate on the bill or its amendments.

As told in yesterday's Post-Dispatch, the principal amendments to the aldermanic bill recommended by the Board of Public Service after two months' consideration, are the reduction of the tax on gross earnings from 5 per cent to 1 per cent, proposed to one-half of 1 per cent, thus reducing the tax from approximately $450,000 a year to approximately $225,000; permitting the company to pay the accrued mill tax, amounting to approximately $2,300,000, in 10 annual payments without interest, instead of in five annual payments; allowing the company 12 months, instead of nine, in which to accept the "compromise," unless the war ends before that period expires, and if it does the company to file its acceptance of the ordinance within six months of the end of the war; and permitting a change in the $500,000,000 valuation to any valuation fixed by the State Public Service Commission.

State Regulation Recognized.

Recognition of the power of the State Public Service Commission to increase fares is contained in Sections 25 and 26 of the Board of Public Service bill, the first of which fixes the fare at 5 cents for adults and 2 1/2 cents for children, and is changed by the State Commission, and the second providing for universal transfers until different regulations concerning transfers are made by the State Commission.

The new bill of the State Commission to regulate street car fares was contested by City Counselor Daues when the United Railways applied to the commission for permission to raise its fares. Daues contending that the present franchise constitutes a contract with the city and that only the city can regulate fares. His contention was overruled by the commission which is now holding hearings on the company's application.

Kinsey Explains Action.

President Kinsey of the Board of Public Service, discussing the ordinance yesterday, said the sections recognizing the jurisdiction of the State Commission to regulate fares were inserted at the instance of the United Railways Co. He said that in his opinion the city was not precluded from testing this power of the commission.

The right of the State Commission to regulate street car fares was contested by City Counselor Daues when the United Railways applied to the commission for permission to raise its fares. Daues contending that the present franchise constitutes a contract with the city and that only the city can regulate fares. His contention was overruled by the commission which is now holding hearings on the company's application.

The right of the State Commission to regulate street car fares was contested by City Counselor Daues when the United Railways applied to the commission for permission to raise its fares. Daues contending that the present franchise constitutes a contract with the city and that only the city can regulate fares. His contention was overruled by the commission which is now holding hearings on the company's application.

The right of the State Commission to regulate street car fares was contested by City Counselor Daues when the United Railways applied to the commission for permission to raise its fares. Daues contending that the present franchise constitutes a contract with the city and that only the city can regulate fares. His contention was overruled by the commission which is now holding hearings on the company's application.

Franchise for 31 Years.

The action of the Board of Public Service in recommending the amendments was purely advisory, leaving the Board of Aldermen free to reject any portion of the bill or to amend it in any way. Under the new charter all franchise ordinances must be submitted to the Service Board for a report before being considered by Aldermen for final passage.

All provisions in the bill, as it now stands, are effective for 31 years with the exception of taxation, which is reserved to the city. The right to increase the one-half of one per cent tax on gross earnings to a tax of 3 per cent on gross earnings, the theory of the tax reduction being that it is needed at present to enable the company to increase wages.

A committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which has been considering the present bill for two months, completed its sessions yesterday, but so far no report has been submitted to the Board of Public Service as promised. President Kinsey, however, said yesterday he had been informed the bill as ratified by his body was favored by the Chamber of Commerce committee.

Niles and Moser Cigar Co.

Quality maintained makes it popular, ADY.

WIFE SAID HERZOG DIDN'T KNOW HOW TO TREAT WOMAN

Montague Lessler Tells of His Effort to Bring About a Reconciliation.

HAPPY FOR A MONTH

Divorce Plaintiff Wrote Witness of Her Joy—Called His Parents "Dears."

Montague Lessler, former Congressman from the Second New York district, took the stand again this morning in Judge Taylor's court as a witness for Fred J. Herzog, Washington avenue wholesale druggist, who is defending in a cross bill a divorce suit by Helen Lester Herzog, with whom he lived four months after their marriage in New York after a month's acquaintance.

Lessler was attorney for Mrs. Herzog in connection with collecting alimony from her former husband, Herbert Kaufman, a magazine writer. When the family life of the Herzogs became stormy, Lessler, in the capacity of friend of Herzog and former attorney for his wife, attempted to act as peacemaker.

The witness testified that he was friendly with Herzog and his wife, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Herzog, friends of the Herzogs, and frequently dined with them. Herzog, he said, was a New York silk merchant and one of his clients.

He told of dining with Mrs. Herzog and Mr. and Mrs. Herzog in the Hoffman in New York, and said that while he and Mrs. Herzog were looking over the plans for Herzog's new home in New York, he saw that she was not receiving proper attention and told her husband that if he was "half a man" he would see she received the attention she deserved.

After the dinner they went to a motion picture show, but did not remain long, going from there to Herzog's room in the Hoffman house. Cross-examination of Lessler was devoted to an attempt to obtain admissions which would lessen the effect of his testimony.

Asked if he had not associated with the wife of a client, Lessler asked:

"Which one?"

"Mrs. Amy Herzog, wife of Leo F. Herzog," the attorney said.

"Yes, I associated with Amy and her husband," Lessler replied.

Responding to questions he said that once, in a New York restaurant with the Herzogs and Mrs. Herzog, he "drank a glass of beer and any drink a highball."

He branded as a "deliberate lie" a statement in a question as to whether he had not put his arm around Mrs. Herzog in the Hoffman, and later at the motion picture show.

"In the first place, the Hoffman is not a place where that would be permitted," he said indignantly.

Tried to Sell a Letter.

He was asked if Mrs. Herzog had not been asked by Herzog to make a statement showing wrong intentions paid by Lessler to Mrs. Herzog. In explaining this, he testified that last August Herzog told him that Mrs. Herzog had tried to sell him a certain letter.

He said Mrs. Herzog, who was referred to by Mrs. Herzog's attorney as "Amy," was in Nevada, and when asked if he corresponded with her, he replied:

"That is none of your business."

He said Mrs. Herzog was not living with her husband. In reply to a question as to whether his feeling toward Mrs. Herzog was unfriendly, he replied:

"No, my feeling for her is one of great contempt and pity."

Lessler denied that Mrs. Herzog had written a letter to him dismissing him from handling her financial affairs in New York, but admitted she had written asking an accounting. He said he sent the accounting to Herzog, instead of to her, "because her lawyer was too impatient for me to pay any attention to."

On redirect examination he explained his friendship for Mrs. Herzog and for Herzog by saying: "We were boys and girls together. It was a devoted friendship, high minded, and such as to be very proud of."

He was asked if Mrs. Herzog had gone to Reno, Nev., at his suggestion, to obtain a divorce. He denied this.

In his testimony yesterday he told of several conferences in his New York office, one March 2, 1917, continuing nearly three hours. He said Mrs. Herzog talked most of that time, frequently denouncing her husband. She called Herzog names, he testified, and declared "he did not know how to treat a woman."

"Drove First Wife to Grave."

She remarked, Lessler continued,

"that he had driven his first wife to the grave, but that he was not going to do the same thing to her. She said he should know how to treat a woman who had been entertained in London by Lloyd George and Asquith." (Lloyd George is the present Premier of Great Britain and Herbert Asquith was former Premier.) Lessler said that he protested that it was not decent to refer to the dead wife of Herzog.

Mrs. Herzog's lawyer objected to Lessler's testifying on the ground that he had acted in a confidential capacity as her lawyer. Witness explained that at the time of the various conferences he was not acting as her attorney, but as a mutual friend of both husband and wife. He said that previously he had assisted Mrs. Herzog in collecting $150 a week alimony from her former husband, but he never received compensation from her. Judge Taylor overruled the objection.

Lessler produced a letter he received from Mrs. Herzog Dec. 7, 1916, a month after her marriage to Herzog, in which she told how happy she was in her new home, and with the salutation, "Dear old Mont," she wrote:

"Have you thought me a selfish pig to forget my old friends?" Mrs. Herzog in the letter complained that she had lost sight of her friends, and asked a bill, had in some way learned her address in St. Louis and sent her a dun. She said she wanted Lessler to arrange that the bill be paid and that she look after her financial matters at the New York end, as she did not want them to upset the serenity of her husband. "Fred is so utterly happy I fear to have him disturbed," she wrote.

Called His Parents "Dears."

She described her husband's parents as "dears, all sweetness and kindness, and as for him (her husband) words fail me. We are increasingly happy every minute." She also stated that she was being well received socially and that her engagement book was filled for two weeks ahead. "His parents marvel at my adaptable ways," she said. The letter closed with the expression, "Do, Mont, dear old thing, keep me and my posterity will love and call you blessed."

Lessler testified that Herzog and his wife apparently became reconciled at a meeting in his home on Staten Island, and that when she told him they had settled their differences, he kissed her and congratulated them.

Herzog, who is treasurer of the L. Herzog & Bro. Dry Goods Co., 1204 Washington avenue, concluded his testimony yesterday afternoon. He denied that he had transferred stock and bonds owned by him to an uncle in New York to prevent his present wife from getting hold of the property. He said the transfer was made because his uncle was demanding additional security on a $100,000 loan.

$2000 IN STOLEN DRUGS FOUND IN A GARAGE

Police Recover Loot Taken From Drug Company and Also Two Missing Autos.

Narcotics valued at $2000, stolen Thursday night from a vault in the warehouse of the Meyer Bros. Drug Co., Fourth street and Clarke avenue, were recovered by the police yesterday afternoon in a garage behind the residence at 2444 Von Versen avenue.

Two stolen automobiles, an outfit of safe robbers' tools and a stock of perfumes, wrist watches and safety razors, also were found in the garage. The perfumes, watches and razors have been identified as part of the loot taken from the drug company. They were not missed at the time the theft of the drugs was reported.

One of the automobiles has been identified as the property of Louis Knapp of the Lewis Motor Car Co., 4700 Washington boulevard. It was stolen March 5. The other car, owned by Thomas Harkins, 4418 Washington boulevard, was stolen March 12.

The drugs were taken from a vault after holes had been drilled through the door and the combination jerked out. The Knapp car answers the description of an automobile which was pursued by detectives in the Laclede Avenue District Thursday night, after safes had been robbed in the offices of the New Mercantile Laundry, 1221 Market street, and the Columbia Taxicab Co., 4213 Delmar boulevard.

Harvey Stead and Luke Leo Ryan of Detroit and Chicago respectively, who have served penitentiary sentences for robbery, have been identified by employees of the Meyer Bros. Drug Co. as two of three men who were seen loitering about the drug company's building Thursday evening. Stead had a 4-inch steel drill which fitted the holes bored in the vault door. He and Ryan were arrested Thursday night in an automobile, the ownership of which has not been established.

The garage at the Von Versen avenue address was rented March 5 by a man who introduced himself as "Mr. Kirk." He agreed to pay $10 a month for it. An hour after he had rented it, he installed a touring car. A few days later he drove another car of the same make to the garage.

The family residing at the Von Versen avenue address discovered Thursday that the automobiles had been altered. Wheels and license tags had been removed and one of the cars was sitting on "jacks." A policeman, who was notified, took the factory numbers from the cars and through them traced the ownership. Yesterday afternoon the policeman took Knapp to the garage to identify his automobile. They found the drugs and safe robbers' tools.

The Columbia Taxicab Co. today received information from the police of narcotics aggregating $200, which were taken with $250 in cash by the safe robbers Thursday night.

C. A. Bull to Go to France.

Charles A. Bull, president of the St. Louis Conference of Epworth Leagues in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will depart for New York next week preparatory to sailing for France to do Y. M. C. A. work. He is a gospel singer.

Miss Wilson Going to France.

CAPTE MAY, N. J., March 15 (By A. P.).—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the President, announced at the Wiesbaden barracks of the naval reserves force here that she is going to France. She has been visiting all the cantonments and spent most of the week here.

Engine Explodes, Killing Two Men.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 16 (By A. P.).—Two trainmen are dead and three are in hospitals with severe injuries, as the result of the explosion of the boiler of a "pusher" locomotive yesterday on the North Carolina & St. Louis Railroad, near Cowan, Tenn.

Lincoln's Gettysburg Speech

1918 WORLD and Post-Dispatch ALMANAC (War Information Edition)

On Sale at the Post-Dispatch Counter and at All Newsstands

Price 30c, by Mail 35c

LEFT-OVERS

After every family dinner there are nutritious bits of left-overs sufficient for another meal. Add a snappy relish—It's Economy!

LEA & PERRINS SAUCE

THE ORIGINAL WORCESTERSHIRE The Maritime relish.

CHRONIC CONSTIPATION

IS A CRIME AGAINST NATURE

Stop it or you never can keep well. If you wake with a bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, perhaps headache, your liver is torpid. A torpid liver damages the whole system, produces dyspepsia, constipation and piles. There is no better remedy for these disorders than DR. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS. Try them just once and be eternally convinced. For sale by all druggists.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills," 100 N. 3rd St., St. Louis, Mo.

CUTICURA

BEFORE USING CUTICURA AFTER USING CUTICURA

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

SOAP and Ointment

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills," 100 N. 3rd St., St. Louis, Mo.

CUTICURA

BEFORE USING CUTICURA AFTER USING CUTICURA

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

SOAP and Ointment

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills," 100 N. 3rd St., St. Louis, Mo.

CUTICURA

BEFORE USING CUTICURA AFTER USING CUTICURA

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

SOAP and Ointment

Quickly soothe and heal eczemas, rashes, itching and burnings of the skin.

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Cuticura, Dept. 6A, Boston." Sold everywhere. Soap 25c. Ointment 25 and 50c.

Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

Sample sent free by mail. Address postcard to "Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills," 100 N. 3rd St., St. Louis, Mo.

SCHUMANN-HEINK HAS RECORD CROWD AT ODEON

Throng Overflows on Stage as Contralto Manifests Genius in Song.

By RICHARD L. STOKES.

ST. LOUIS attained metropolitan stature as a music-loving community last night when, despite war privations, it poured forth a throng that massed the Odeon's boxes, parquet and balcony, overflowed into rows of extra chairs, and finally, for the first time at the auditorium, flooded upon the stage itself, where some 200 found seats.

The gathering alone, so numerous, so rapt in the business of the evening, sufficed to afford a stirring spectacle, such as one associates with Carnegie Hall in New York or Orchestra Hall in Chicago.

The idealism which mustered this record assembly was the redoubtable Mme. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, appearing in her only recital here this season. The tribute, it is a happiness to testify, was not due, as in some mentionable instances, to a claim of exploiting unworthiness; it was honestly won by the contralto's great qualities as an artist, proved during long years of loyal good faith with the public, in an established record of service returned in bounteous measure for its favor.

At the age of 56, the grandmother of nine, her hair whitened by years and troubles, she remains a true empress of song, and what is more, probably the best-loved artist in the country.

Last night, as always, she displayed from her first entrance the astonishing knack of magnetism which enables her at once to join in the friendliest rapport with an audience. She appeared at first glance to take the crowd to her heart, and it was not slow in reciprocating the endearment. What in others may be calculating coquetry is in her the spontaneous outpouring of a richly affectionate nature, and the public is infallible in detecting the distinction.

Again, as is her custom, she reinforced her personal appeal by giving lavishly of the best of her art. Her program included no less than two arias, 12 songs and two encores. In range of style they were as spacious as in number, from the tenderest of operatic excerpts to the tenderness of a cradle song, from the tragedy of a mother's cry for her lost child to the radiant gaiety of a waltz song, from the religious rapture of a hymn to the martial pealing of a national anthem.

It would be idle to deny that her voice is past its once glorious meridian. More than ever its fraying was manifest, in frequent rough and husky tones, in occasional lapses from pitch. But at its best it is still a superb organ, of a quality combining opulence and sweetness, with low notes like those of a violinello, and with a capacity in climaxes for clarion and sustained utterance. It also displayed a rather surprising agility and airiness of touch in the rapid decorations of Ardit's "Bolerio," together with a capriciously executed trill, held evenly at length. Perhaps the most appealing of her vocal feats is an exquisite pianissimo.

But the genius of Mme. Schumann-Heink's voice lies not so much in its instrumental beauty as in its perfection as an organ of interpretation. Scarcely any other singer can be named who so thoroughly saturates her tones with the sense of the text. Where others are content to catch the general mood of a song, she, in minute and incessant gradations, colors the voice to suit the detail of every word.

National Anthem a Revelation.

In the familiar song by Gertrude Ross, "Dawn in the Desert," occupy the line, "Great spaces and the breath of desert winds." Within the limit of these eight words the singer found scope for no less than three clearly defined and contrasting amplitudes of mood outflowing on the words "great spaces"; an accent of utter dreariness and desolation on the word "desert," and a suggestion of quivering sepia on the word "winds." Later in the same song she came an outcry of ecstasy with the vocable "wonderful," and finally a pean of triumph on the words "the sun."

Not the least remarkable number on her program was "The Star-Spangled Banner," her rendition of which was a startling revelation for those accustomed to its routine singing and playing. She turned the first verse into a drama—a drama which the words vividly justify, but which over-familiarity has betrayed many of us into forgetting. One felt the dreadful anxiety and suspense of the watcher waiting through the night to see whether the flag still floated at dawn, one was with him in the midst of glaring rockets and bursting bombs, one joined in his impassioned cry of joy that the banner still waved as the sun arose. This performance was an overwhelming reply to those like Dr. Karl Muck, who declare that "The Star-Spangled Banner" is not a fine art-song.

A New War Song. Other notable numbers of the evening were a recitative and aria from Handel's "Alcina," the profoundly moving aria, "Ah, Mon Dieu," from Meyerbeer's "Le Prophete," Weatherly's pathetic "Daddy Boy," Salter's poignant "Cry of Rachel," and "When the Boys Come Marching Home," a military song of the war. With the exception of two selections, one in Italian and the other in French, the entire program was in English, in the painstaking manner of which Mme. Schumann-Heink has notably improved.

Miss Edith Evans played the piano accompaniments charmingly, and also provided the singer with a well-earned respite in the middle of the recital by offering a group of solos.

She might have spared the audience such boarding-school numbers as Liszt's "Liebestraum," MacDowell's "Tea Water Lily" and Chopin's "Butterfly" etc.

Watches and Diamonds on credit. Latta Bros. & Co., 2d fl., 308 N. 2nd st.—ADV.

Sues Father-in-Law for $30,000. William A. Murphy yesterday filed suit for $30,000 damages against his father-in-law, C. Polman.

Polman, 3808 North Eleventh street, a coal dealer, alleging that he alienated the affections of plaintiff's wife, Marie Polman Murphy. Murphy was married to the defendant's daughter in June 28, 1913, and they separated Dec. 23 last. Murphy alleges her father influenced her to leave.

El Marca Pedro Clear, 6c. Quality and size warrants the price.—ADV.

Auto Thieves Escape After Pistol Fight. Two men who drove off an automobile belonging to G. E. Williams, 3951 Botanical avenue, from Broadway and Clark avenue yesterday afternoon, were fired upon by Watchman Joseph Steffen. They returned the fire and at Third street and Clark avenue jumped from the machine and escaped.

Do You Know How to Accomplish These Things? How to find just the right house, apartment or flat?

How to secure the best possible job employment, the pleasant, profitable and has a future that points to advancement?

How to get reliable, trustworthy helpers in the industrial world or for the office?

How to realize full measure of return in buying or selling?

How to reach the better grade of tenants?

How to be posted regarding the realty market in city and suburban property?

How to summon servants for the household who know how and are conscientious in their labor?

How to turn discarded or obsolete home furnishings into cash or exchange them for needed things?

How to return lost or found articles to their owners?

The one most direct, quickest, most efficient and hence BEST way hereabouts is:

READ the Post-Dispatch Want Ads or ADVERTISE in them—Sunday the best day of all.

Tomorrow's big Post-Dispatch Real Estate and Want Directories will contain over 6000 offers, embracing every conceivable human want or need from employment to real estate!

Can you afford to pass them by?

Brigadier-General Donnelly Here. Brigadier-General Arthur B. Donnelly, under whose command are the soldiers in the old First and Fifth Missouri Infantry of St. Louis, is at his home, 5078 Cates avenue, for a short visit. He will return to Camp Donnelly tomorrow evening.

Gen. Donnelly said the Missouri troops were in excellent condition and fully equipped.

REVIEWS OF NEW BOOKS

NEW BOOKS FOR THE WEEK AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

RICHARD STRAUSS: THE MAN AND HIS WORKS. By H. J. Finck. A most interesting and valuable life of the first great realist in music, who has done for program music what Wagner did for the opera. A sympathetic appreciation of "Richard Strauss: Ser and Idealist." is contributed by Percy Grainger.

MANUAL OF MILITARY AVIATION. By H. L. Mueller. The author, a Major in the Aviation Section, United States Army, designed this manual to be used for a textbook and for reference.

WILLY-NICKY CORRESPONDENCE. With an introduction by Herman Bernstein and a foreword by Theodore Roosevelt. The secret and intimate telegrams exchanged between the Kaiser and the Czar just before the war.

CHINESE NIGHTINGALE AND OTHER POEMS. By Vachel Lind. Many of these poems were published formerly in "The Bookman," "The Independent," "Poetry" and other magazines. The author was awarded the Levinson prize for the best poem.

STRETCHER BEARER. By R. A. L. The author, who for military reasons withholds his name, gives us a very real and vital view of the war. He writes not only of his surroundings and experiences, but also of his thoughts, feelings and impressions.

CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING: ITS ADVANTAGES AS EXEMPLIFIED IN THE CALIFORNIA FRUIT GROWERS' EXCHANGE. By W. W. Cumberland. Comprehensive history of the exchange, outlining its methods. Should give a great stimulus to one phase of co-operation.

HOW TO MAKE CONCRETE GARDEN FURNITURE. By J. T. Fallon. Practical guide which takes up the selection and testing of material, making the forms and placing the concrete (with working drawings), enabling a beginning gardener to make a wide variety of benches, pools, walls, sundials, bird-baths, lanterns, etc.

DIARY OF THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION. By J. L. Houghteling Jr. The story of the Revolution of March, 1917, based partly on the actual experiences of the author and partly on facts that are of record or common knowledge in Petrograd and Moscow.

PRESIDENT WILSON: HIS PROBLEMS AND HIS POLICY FROM AN ENGLISH POINT OF VIEW. By H. W. Harris. The author gives a very clear idea of President Wilson and of his political policies and leadership, pointing out the relations of the two great world powers to be as they should be after the war, it is essential that the peoples know and understand one another.

FARM BUILDINGS. By H. A. Shearer. Plans, with detailed descriptions, for the construction of farm houses, stables, dairy barns, poultry houses and other farm buildings.

TO ARMS! By M. Tinsyre. An intensely interesting story of those memorable days from July 31 to Aug. 2 of 1914. It reveals the heroic spirit of the French people displayed at the outbreak of the war. Translated from the French by L. H. Humphrey.

NOTE-BOOK OF AN INTELLIGENCE OFFICER. By Eric Fisher. Wood is now in the Eighty-third Division of the National Army, having been a Major in the British Army. Well known as the author of "The Note-Book of an Attache."

GERMAN INTRIGUE IN GREECE. DEMETRA VAKA, a Grecian by birth and an American by choice, being the wife of Kenneth Brown, a well-known American journalist and author, went back to her native land with her husband, during the crisis that beset Greece in her effort to be neutral shortly after the outbreak of the great war, to use her influence and her pen to induce the little kingdom to cast its lot with the allies. She has recorded her experiences and observations in a very interesting volume, "In the Heart of German Intrigue." In the course of her visit to the country, Demetra Vaka met all the conspicuous politicians, both pro-German and pro-ally, and had long personal interviews with King Constantine himself.

This bright American interviewer not only talked with the King as often as she wished, but she did not hesitate to exercise her right as a journalist to tell him that his policies were all wrong in so far as they involved Greece's attitude in the war. The King took it all very amiably and seemed to be not at all offended by her not always gentle rebukes. However, she avers that each time she and her husband called on His Majesty, they were constantly under observation by persons who elected not to make their presence known, but remained in seclusion.

The King expressed himself freely, so freely, in fact, that it is quite evident that he lost his throne later chiefly because he talked too much. He was personally very charming but politically he was rabidly pro-German. Of the French, he said to Demetra Vaka:

"They are forcing me to do things because they are stronger, that is all. The French are a degenerate, degenerate race, and I shall be glad of the day when the French will throw Sarraill (the allied commander) into the sea—as they will."

"What have they done?" he asked contemptuously, when his interviewer told him the French had been sublime in this war. "They have shown they can't fight."

"And the battle of the Marne?"

Kenneth Brown and I cried simultaneously.

"The battle of the Marne—rubbish!" the King replied.

"And the English, do you also despise them?" Demetra Vaka asked.

"Oh, no; I like the English, but they can't beat the Germans. They don't know how. They have no officers, they have no Generals. Those things cannot be made in a day."

"Then you believe that Germany will win?"

"She has too many against her for that. It will be a pax blancha—a drawn battle. They dislike me, they can't beat the Germans. They don't know how. They have no officers, they have no Generals. Those things cannot be made in a day."

"When you were at the station and presented with the Field Marshal's baton. I had to say something, and I told the truth. I should do it again, but the French have never forgiven me. They don't like me and I dislike them."

"And you admire the Germans?"

"How can I help admiring them? They are the only nation that knows how to govern, that has any system, that has any discipline. Look at what is going on today! The whole world is against them and they can hold the whole world. The only thing the French can do is to annoy me."

When reminded that his vacillating methods made the world suspicious of his good faith and that dignified submission to the demands of the allies was his wisest course, he peevishly retorted:

"Why should I show all the dignity?"

"Because you are the King."

"Oh, what's a King today? When they annoy me, I like to annoy them!"

Greece truly has been the German propagandist's paradise. The court and those hanging to its fringes were bitter against the allies, Demetra Vaka found. They were the war architects, the autocrats. The people, on the other hand, were inclined to the allies. The democrats of the kingdom, to a man, were all pro-ally. Demetra Vaka exposes the methods of the German propagandists. She illuminates her account of their operations with illustrative incidents and her book is one of the most readable that has been born of the war. (Houghton-Mifflin.)

The Early West. A. CODY, in "Under Sealed Orders," has furnished a story of the undeveloped West and an idealist, known in his community as "Crazy David," who is able to live up to see his dreams of a vast electrical plant developed through a young engineer working through sealed orders. Although it is not clear to what use such a plant in so sparsely settled country can be put, all is cleared up in the final chapter, when David's death reveals that the sealed orders were those of his millionaire brother, made before the latter's death, to atone for an injustice in their younger days.

A charming girl who falls in love with the struggling young engineer and helps to clear him of a murder charge when "David" is found slain, brings in the usual love threads and interest in the story. (Doran & Co.)

Books Received. "GERMAN ATROCITIES—THEIR NATURE AND PHILOSOPHY," by Newell Dwight Hillis. (Fleming H. Revell Co.) Evidence personally collected in long journeys through the war-devastated regions of France and Belgium.

"HARRY BUTTERS, R. F. A. Life and War Letters." Edited by Mrs. Denis O'Sullivan. (New York: John Lane Co.) The brief record of a California boy who gave his life for England. These letters are an inspiration to youth.

"COMRADES IN COURAGE," by Lieut. Antoine Redier. (New York: Doubleday, Page & Co.) One of the most interesting books on the war as seen by a French officer.

"W. E. FORD, A BIOGRAPHY," by J. D. Beresford and Kenneth Richmond. (New York: George H. Doran Co.) The subject of this book died just before the war. His biographers hold that he was a pioneer in new educational theory and practice which will greatly influence the immediate future. A remarkable individuality.

"DENMARK AND SWEDEN, WITH ICELAND AND FINLAND." By Jon Steffansson, Ph. D. Lecturer in Icelandic at King's College, London; with a preface by Viscount Bryce. (New York: G. P. Putnam's Sons.) Latest volume in "The Story of the Nations" series. Contains 33 illustrations and a map.

"BOOTH TARKINGTON." By Robert Cortes Holliday. Illustrated. (Doubleday, Page & Co.) A sympathetic study of the famous novelist.

"THE SOUL OF DEMOCRACY. The Philosophy of the World War in Relation to Human Liberty." By Edward Howard Griggs. Clear-sighted, attractive in style, and helpful. (New York: MacMillan & Co.)

"AMERICAN WOMEN AND THE WORLD WAR." By Ida Clyde Clarke. (New York: D. Appleton & Co.) Showing how American women have organized and worked in the various activities conducive to the winning of the war and the prevention of unnecessary suffering. A splendid record of self-sacrificing devotion.

PUBLICATIONS.

The Thirty Richest Multi-millionaires

Who they are. How many millions each own. How much income they have. In what line of business the millions were made.

A full list of these men and women, with complete details answering the above questions, appears in the current number of Forbes Magazine from the pen of B. C. Forbes. The information has been obtained from the leading bankers of America and covers the subject in a five-page leading editorial.

The figures are the most authoritative ever compiled—they are startling.

Some of the names in the list will surprise you. These thirty multi-millionaires own altogether $2,650,000,000.

SPECIAL OFFER. We will send you eight issues of FORBES MAGAZINE (15c a copy—$1.20 a year—24 issues) for $1.00, and will include a free copy of the number containing "The Thirty Richest Multi-Millionaires." 8 issues in all. Just pin a dollar bill to this offer and mail to:

FORBES MAGAZINE 150 Broadway, Dept. F. D-3-16 New York

NEW PUBLICATIONS. NEW PUBLICATIONS.

How the men from Canada's prairies won immortal fame in Flanders when, outgunned and outnumbered, they, by sheer pluck and tenacity, threw back Germany's magnificently equipped hordes and saved the world.

"Holding the Line"

By SERGEANT HAROLD BALDWIN

This story of the war as a fighting man saw it is one to stir the blood; no effort of the novelist's imagination was ever so fascinating. It gives giant word pictures of battles and battlefields. It reveals modern army life in all its phases. It's the best personal narrative of the war yet written.

Price, $1.50

AT ALL BOOKSTORES

A. C. McCLURG & CO., Publishers, CHICAGO

Trees, Shrubs, Perennials

Buy WESTOVER home-grown plants and avoid delays and loss due to railroad congestion.

Select your plants in the field instead of from a catalog and see what you are paying for.

Westover Nursery Co. Both Sides of Olive St. Road West of North & South Road

Bell Phone Hanley 202

cream creamaid

Blanton Creamo---churned in cream---made of the highest quality edible oils it is possible to buy---purity and wholesomeness insured by Government inspection. Still Creamo costs practically no more than the cheaply made inferior margarines.

Look for this sign in the doorway of the best dealer in your neighborhood. If you don't find it, phone Main 4345—Central 2058—or write the Blanton Company, 2d and Spruce.

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

cream creamaid

To The American People

There is no foundation for the alleged violations of law attributed to our Company by agents of the Federal Trade Commission and I want to say emphatically that Swift & Company is not a party to any conspiracy to defraud the Government. Nor has Swift & Company been guilty of improperly storing foods or of making false entries or reports.

Conferences of packers, where prices have been discussed, have been held at the urgent request and in the presence of representatives of either the Food Administration or the Council of National Defense. And yet the packers have been accused of committing a felony by acting in collusion on Government bids!

We have done our best, with other packers, large and small, to comply with the directions of the United States Food Administration in all particulars, including the furnishing of food supplies for the U.S. Army and Navy and the Allies, now being handled through the Food Administration.

We will continue to do our utmost, under Government direction, to increase our production and assist the Food Administration. We consider that the opportunity to co-operate wholeheartedly and to our fullest powers with this branch of the Government is our plain and most pressing duty.

The Trade Commission Attorney has, by false inference and misplaced emphasis, given to disconnected portions of the correspondence taken from our private files and read into the Record, a false and sinister meaning with the plain purpose of creating antagonistic public opinion.

The services of the packers of the United States are most urgently needed, and I regret exceedingly that we should at this time have to spend our efforts in defending ourselves against unfounded, unproved, and unfair assertions such as are being daily made public.

L. F. Swift, President,

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision for over 30 years. Allow no one to deceive you in this. Counterfeits, imitations and "just-as-good" are but experiments, and endanger the health of Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA? Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drowsy Sleep, and other narcotic substances. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea, allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher

In Use For Over 30 Years

THE J. C. FLETCHER COMPANY, NEW YORK, OYT.

HELP WANTED-MEN.

-Immediacy, easy back
 -White, married man
 in car for long UP, must for required, alcohol, good water on a turn 5, or 4, or 4, or 4
 2175 Franklin
 3407 Ohio
 FEEDER-John, experienced, 2400 N. Drilling
 HAND-Machine exper.
 for large work; read; per Stone Co., East St. Louis, Ill.
 MEN-And laborers
 254 Arcade Bldg.
 Express Serv
 wanted: good opportunity for EMPLOYMENT AGENTS
 ELLIS-Furniture & Co.
 CORRESPONDENT-Pr
 long-established mail order of writing for preferred; exceptional and with background experience and give reference PERSONS-Crosscut and Rip saw 1000 N. Main St.
 PRESSER-Room 404, 700 P
 4th floor.
 METAL WORKERS-Wash
 Corlies Works, Tulsa, Okla.
 must be man with brains
 and good work habits

WE CAN USE

Mechanics, Automatic Sewing Machine Makers, J. & L. Turlet Lathe Turners, Plaster Foremen and Apprentices.

If you have a good opportunity us on Government work story in Dayton. Large wages and working conditions in city.

In touch with us regarding your activities as experienced men. We gladly consider your application.

only care for shipping room; steady work; show past experience; married man over 30 preferred. Best Men's Club.

[illegible]

FIRE REPAIRMAN—First-class
fives and tubes; good pay to

WE CAN USE
Carpenters, Automatic Screw Machine
Operators, J. & L. Turret Lathe
Operators, Plaster Foremen and Painters.

offer you a good opportunity with us on Government work in Dayton.
and working conditions city with us regarding paying age, experience, etc., gladly consider your application.

COOK - Fir furnish re
Boys - 18 COPIST -
only: exper
wood cons resistant, r
floor.
DINING R
bital 3413
DISHWASH
1413
DISHWASH
4100 Olive
FUR OPER
learn Fragin and GIRL - For GIRL - To 2000 L
GIRL - Exp
2000 L

on. Address
THE DAYTON METAL

COMPANY, Dayton, Ohio

GIRL - Or 12.50. 1

GIRL - To Lucas.

GIRLS - Li factory, a

GIRL - Wor necessary

GIRLS - Ov
4900 N. 2

GIRL - To
circula

ALL PAPER CLEANERS—Best
steady work. A. B. C. Cleaning

[illegible]

EL BURNISHER—And treer. As

[illegible]

AGENTS WANTED: MI

[illegible]

MAIL ORDERS

10c dozen, single edge; du-pendent Niade Mfg. Co. #1

PLESMENT WANTED

1.44c wire, grocery specialties
see references with application
Post-Dispatch

To not time, tie - make edge, strictly commission; city
#1-242, Post-Dispatch

—Slide film (2 pans, order on 16-28 self-films, safety illumination, new - see 150 Broadway, New York

11

free
Post(cT)
$7.00
3. for x 11-(7)
LE Penn-
sa J.

pur-near
P + D, (c67)

pur-near
P + D, (c67) v

SALE

x 180:
 10 1/2:
 W (c7)

from the (7)

class
 x 11-(7)

enny
ckea 3500.
(C7)
286 also in rrf)

19 con-best

1. Wash.
 2. Aug.
 3. Oct.
 4. or 6
 5. price
 6. and
 7. Coll.
 8. (4)

1. Wash.
 2. Aug.
 3. Oct.
 4. or 6
 5. price
 6. and
 7. Coll.
 8. (4)

nos-
 bers, rac-
 oons;
 make (en)
 SALE
 350
 sell;
 pair;
 brick ater, ade.

(c7)
angle
and bar
Gib
one
L
(c7)
~~~~~
ma:
out-
ca

pink blue lower etrio
127 cent
mut.
and tem;
star.
(et)

146;
sale.
res-[ed]
in f.
rely

(c1)
LE

197-1 a m1;
22
004
(6)
D
Dis.
pas.
TV
Mil-
(ch)
20

170
 171
 172
 173
 174
 175
 176
 177
 178
 179
 180
 181
 182
 183
 184
 185
 186
 187
 188
 189
 190
 191
 192
 193
 194
 195
 196
 197
 198
 199
 200 201
 202
 203
 204
 205
 206
 207
 208
 209
 210
 211
 212
 213
 214
 215
 216
 217
 218
 219
 220
 221
 222
 223
 224
 225
 226
 227
 228
 229
 230
 231
 232
 233
 234
 235
 236
 237 238
 239
 240
 241
 242
 243
 244
 245
 246
 247
 248
 249
 250
 251
 252
 253
 254
 255
 256
 257
 258
 259
 260
 261
 262
 263
 264
 265
 266
 267
 268
 269
 270
 271
 272
 273
 274
 275
 276
 277
 278
 279
 280
 281
 282
 283
 284
 285
 286
 287
 288
 289
 290
 291
 292
 293
 294
 295
 296
 297
 298
 299
 300
 301
 302
 303
 304
 305
 306
 307
 308
 309
 310
 311
 312
 313
 314
 315
 316
 317
 318
 319
 320
 321
 322
 323
 324
 325
 326
 327
 328
 329
 330
 331
 332
 333
 334
 335
 336
 337
 338
 339
 340
 341
 342
 343
 344
 345
 346
 347
 348
 349
 350
 351
 352
 353
 354
 355
 356
 357
 358
 359
 360
 361
 362
 363
 364 365
 366
 367
 368
 369
 370
 371
 372
 373
 374
 375
 376
 377
 378
 379
 380
 381
 382
 383
 384
 385
 386
 387
 388
 389
 390
 391
 392
 393
 394
 395
 396
 397
 398
 399
 400
 401
 402
 403
 404
 405
 406
 407
 408
 409
 410
 411
 412
 413
 414
 415
 416
 417
 418
 419
 420
 421
 422
 423
 424
 425
 426
 427
 428
 429
 430
 431
 432
 433
 434
 435
 436
 437
 438
 439
 440
 441
 442
 443
 444
 445
 446
 447
 448
 449
 450
 451
 452
 453
 454
 455
 456
 457
 458
 459
 460
 461
 462
 463
 464
 465
 466
 467
 468
 469
 470
 471
 472
 473
 474
 475
 476
 477
 478
 479
 480
 481
 482
 483
 484
 485
 486
 487
 488
 489
 490
 491
 492
 493
 494
 495
 496
 497
 498
 499
 500
 501 502
 503
 504
 505
 506
 507
 508
 509
 510
 511
 512
 513
 514
 515
 516
 517
 518
 519
 520
 521
 522
 523
 524
 525
 526
 527
 528
 529
 530
 531
 532
 533
 534
 535
 536
 537
 538
 539
 540
 541
 542
 543
 544
 545
 546
 547
 548
 549
 550
 551
 552
 553
 554
 555
 556
 557
 558
 559
 560
 561
 562
 563
 564
 565
 566
 567
 568
 569
 570
 571
 572
 573
 574
 575
 576
 577
 578
 579
 580
 581
 582
 583
 584
 585
 586
 587
 588
 589
 590
 591
 592
 593
 594
 595
 596
 597
 598
 599
 600
 601
 602
 603
 604
 605
 606
 607
 608
 609
 610
 611
 612
 613
 614
 615
 616
 617
 618
 619
 620
 621
 622
 623
 624
 625
 626
 627
 628
 629
 630
 631
 632
 633
 634
 635
 636
 637
 638
 639
 640
 641
 642
 643
 644
 645
 646
 647
 648
 649
 650
 651
 652
 653
 654
 655
 656
 657
 658
 659
 660 661
 662
 663
 664
 665
 666
 667
 668
 669
 670
 671
 672
 673
 674
 675
 676
 677
 678
 679
 680 681

ing
the
of J
to - 71

ini-
wa
Vor
mu
ic-
79

Willard and Fulton Will Sign on April Fool's Day; the Promoter Is J. Miller

WILLARD AGREES TO FIGHT FULTON FOR TITLE JULY 4

Champion Will Guarantee Challenger $20,000 and Side Wager of $5000; Articles to Be Signed April 1.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 16. SPECULATION as to the battleground for the world's championship fight between Title-holder Jess Willard and Challenger Fred Fulton was the principal topic of conversation in boxing circles here today, following the announcement yesterday of the signing of articles of agreement calling for a contest July 4.

The official statement had it that the scene of the encounter would be named at a meeting between representatives of the principals, to be held April 1, probably at Kansas City.

In this connection it was also given out that both men were willing to battle at least 20 rounds. Willard's representative, J. C. Miller of Bliss, Ok., declared that Willard had stated he was willing to go to a finish, if necessary.

The terms under which Mike Collins, acting for Fulton, consented to a match have aroused considerable curiosity inasmuch as while it was specified that Fulton would receive $20,000 and a $5000 side wager, if he won, no mention of any share for Willard was made.

Willard After Big Plum.
This is taken to mean that the champion himself can't promote the match with a view to reaping all the harvest that some promoter might otherwise obtain. This is the more plain since New Orleans club has offered Willard $100,000 for his own end of the engagement.

That Willard is driving a bargain was evident from the fact that he first offered only $5,000 for the match. He raised the ante to $20,000 yesterday, but his representative, Col. Miller, had no authority to consent to the side wager. The announcement of the arrangement of the contest was, therefore, delayed until Willard could himself wire his consent to grant Fulton the betting condition.

Miller, in connection with the discussion regarding the scene of the engagement stated that the bout would be of such length as to conform to the law of the State in which it is finally decided to hold it. If it is to be a 20-round engagement this means Louisiana, Connecticut, Colorado or possibly New Mexico or Wyoming.

Missouri will be in the field for the contest if it is limited to 15 rounds. Joplin being a desirable center from which to promote the mill, Joplin is now a center of rich oil and one magnate, and money is plentiful there. Moreover, it is near Kansas, where Willard was born and he fought his earlier battles. It is the only "wet" spot in reaching distance of three States.

Missouri, however, has no law permitting PUBLIC boxing. The game in Joplin is conducted on a commission basis, with the city commission.

Willard's Challenger, Called 'Joke' Two Years Ago, Forced Recognition
The bout on July 4 will be the second meeting between Fred Fulton and Jess Willard, and the third time they have been matched. Strangely enough, it was through that first meeting with Willard that Fulton sprang into pugilistic prominence.

The Rochester Giant had been boxing with rather indifferent success until May 14, 1915, when Jess Willard, newly crowned heavyweight champion of the world, halted in Fulton's home town to give a boxing exhibition. Frederick was selected as the victim.

The bout was to last four rounds. Fulton lost, but he lost with only the untamed confidence of a man who has everything to gain and nothing to lose, and in one of the mists of the champion, to use a Willard expression, "bit the dust."

Of course, Willard didn't remain down for any appreciable length of time and he claimed he had merely tripped, but there were eyewitnesses and some of them sent the word broadcast that Willard was "knocked down in a sparring exhibition with Fred Fulton." Willard and his friends denied that he was knocked down and a controversy arose as to whether he had been dropped or not. And this resultant controversy caused Fulton to boom. To help matters along Fred boxed over half a dozen lesser lights, scoring knockouts in rapid order, and before the year was out he was matched to fight Willard for the title. Tommy Burns was to promote the match in New Orleans on March 4 of the following year.

Then Fulton met Porky Flynn on Jan. 24, 1916, and made such a miserable showing that despite the fact that he got a referee's decision, the match with Willard was called off.

Fulton claimed he was ill and out of condition when he met Flynn, and his contention was borne out some time later when he knocked out Porky in New York in four rounds.

Fulton Shows His Class.
Less than three weeks after the Porky Flynn fiasco in New Orleans, Fulton knocked out Freeman Jim Flynn in two rounds. This and the fact that he followed this by knocking out Al Welch here in nine rounds, and Andre Amerson, Tom Cowley and Charlie Westcott all fell before Fulton in a bout of four rounds, Weiner lasting two rounds, just twice as long as either of the other two.

Then came a bout which raised a storm of discussion. Fulton and Carl Morris met in this city and in the fifth round Fulton lost to Carl on a split decision. Opinion was divided as to whether Fulton had been knocked out, but the referee decided on a foul, but the referee decided on a foul.

Soon after this Fulton took on the formidable Sam Langford in the latter's own back yard. The fight was a lopsided affair, with Fulton being the victor. He was knocked out by the Boston Tar Baby succumbed in six rounds.

This made Fulton a tremendous card and the public began to demand that he be given a chance at Jess Willard. He was matched with Fulton kept right on fighting, and on Nov. 27 of last year he knocked out Dan Smith in seven rounds in Minneapolis. A month later he lost on a foul to Harry Tate, but a fortnight later he won a decision by putting Tate to sleep in two rounds.

Next came Frank Moran, who had been clamoring for a chance at Fulton and declaring that all he needed to do to beat Fulton was to get him into a ring. Frank had his wish on the 25th of last month—that is, he got Fulton into a ring. But it was Fulton who was carried out, for he lasted a little less than three rounds with Fulton.

SPORT SALAD

Downward Revision.
SAID Magnate Fink: "I really think we'll have a banner year. The kindest words about our birds. On every side I hear."

"If they will sign and get in line, I'll rearrange their pay. And if they stick through this and thick, The flag will come our way."

"But still those guys should realize. Our country's in distress; To ask for more in time of war, Would pain me more or less."

So saying, Fink With pen and ink Plus neatness and dispatch, Revised the price And lopped a slice Off the entire batch.

What Is This, a Series?
In regard to the proposed Willard-Fulton fight Col. J. C. Miller says, "We propose to hold the fight whenever the law allows a long bout." Going to keep those boys pretty busy, aren't you Colones?

The Browns are training in Shreveport, where Phil Ball's father used to be in the ice business. From which we deduce that the Browns are going to play a series with the Shreveport Gassers.

Speaking of ice, see where Ollie Chill is waiting up for a job unimpaired in the Association.
Chill was a frost in the big league, but has many warm admirers in the minors.

There is no truth in the rumor that Tilly Walker and Lena Blackburn had signed with Minneapolis.
Catcher Hank Severid has wired for a gas mask. The Browns are going to play a series with the Shreveport Gassers.

Pat Regan is holding out on Matty. Pat says with price of navy plus going up by leaps and bounds he simply can't consider anything that looks like a rat in his wages.

Charley Veckhman has decided to have a Ladies' day, regardless of the weather. Every dog has his day, why not the ladies?

If Charley is real good, maybe he can arrange with Mr. Rice to put on a Rogers Hornsby day some day.

Connie Mack has signed a first baseman named Munch to fill "Stuffy's" shoes. If Munch can eat 'em up like "Stuffy," he has a steady job.

From "Stuffy" to Munch is a short flight, gastronomically speaking. Baseball's really changing, it is something else again.

A Large Portion.
SEE the Macks have signed a man named Munch. For "Stuffy's" former job with Connie's crew.

In tackling the job we have a hunch the youngster bit off more than he can chew.

Charlie Hollacher's dad raised him to be a ballplayer. And he went and turned into a Cub. You never can tell.

The National League has passed a rule that players must keep their uniforms clean. Jimmy Austin says it can't be done.

Some players are superstitious and think it is bad luck to have their uniforms washed. The theory is that the dirtier you get the cleaner you come.

Turner Barber holds the record for being the first ballplayer injured this year. He was struck by a taxi cab while trying to cross the street in Chicago. Barber wasn't seriously injured but it was a close shave.

Said George Burns: "I am delighted with my transfer from the Tigers to the Macks." So saying he enlisted with a hospital unit in the army.

Grover Alexander is the only traveling holdout in the league. Alex thinks he can hold out just as well on a Pullman car where the eating and sleeping is of the best as anywhere else. And we don't know but the boy is right.

JACK SMITH ONLY PLAYER INSIGNED, DICKEY DECLARES

Hendricks and Squad Arrive in San Antonio to Prepare for First Game Tomorrow.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 16.—With all but Outfielder Jack Smith in line, President Branch Rickey of the Cardinals prepared to leave for St. Louis tonight, after having waited here to greet Manager Hendricks and the advance guard of the Cardinals.

Rickey yesterday signed Walton Cruise and Lee Meadows, completing the roster of contract men save for the exception noted. Cardinals have been arriving one or two a day for a week and a big squad is here ready for today's workout. The Cardinals will get right down to business and tomorrow will play a practice game with the San Antonio Club.

Cruise, Hornsby and one or two others will be here before a day or two has passed, Rickey says. He adds that Smith has not been heard of since he was last seen in the city. He insists that $300 was promised him last year by Miller Huggins and that he will not consider any propositions until this sum has been paid to him. Huggins denied that he had made any such promise to Smith.

For tomorrow's game Pitcher Alfie May, followed by Meadows, Horstman and Watson will probably do the most work. May has been in the city longer than any of the other hurlers, it appears. Altogether there will be 14 pitchers with the team.

Frank Snyder, who makes his home here, has been working out and is reported to be in excellent condition already.

225 TEAMS EXPECTED TO COMPETE IN ANNUAL CITY HANDICAP TENPIN EVENT
Dennis J. Sweeney, secretary of the St. Louis Tenpin Association, stated yesterday that he expected no less than 225 teams to enter the city handicap bowling tournament which will be staged next month on the Washington alleys. According to Sweeney several teams have so much interest manifested in the event as this season.

"Most of the leagues in the city are entering as a body," stated Sweeney. "And this means a great many teams, up here in the interest of the fund to have from six to eight teams, while a few have as high as 12. Already most of these large circuits have obtained approval."

Plans formulated here call for the raising of a fund of $10,000 to be used to build and equip a recreation building. Coulton has offered his services gratis and an effort will be made to match him with a suitable opponent for a boxing program to be staged here next month.

Coulton says he has half a dozen assistants in his boxing work at Camp Pike. There are about 25,000 soldiers engaged in the boxing work. He asserts a boxing instructor's task isn't the easiest one in the world by any means.

Yama was drafted into the National Army from New Orleans, and when Frankie Russell resigned was named to take his place in the boxing of the soldiers' work. He will go back to Camp Pike tomorrow night.

MERGER OF CYCLE CLUBS DUE AT MEETING MONDAY
The Central Cycling Club is expected to merge with the Century Club at the annual meeting of the latter organization to be held Monday evening. The Century Club has a small membership, most of which have joined the colors and as a result they are seriously considering joining hands with the Century, a larger organization.

The election of officers of the Century Club also will take place at the meeting. John Stewart is the incumbent president. Century officials are predicting a big year for cycling.

BOWLERS RECEIVE PRIZES
Checks, representing the amount of money won by the local bowlers in the American Bowling Congress tournament in Chicago, were being distributed yesterday. The Wooster Lancers were the chief winners in Missouri, taking first place in the 50-yard dash in 8.1-5a, equalling the world record. Scholz of Missouri, all-American sprinter, ran the 50-yard dash in 8.1-5a, equalling the world record. Scholz also won the 50-yard low hurdles. Sylvester of Missouri was the individual winner in the 50-yard low hurdles, second in the low hurdles and tie for first in the pole vault.

CUBS AT PASADENA.
PASADENA, Cal., March 16.—The Chicago National League Baseball team was expected to begin training here for the first time this year. The team arrived shortly before midnight last night. There are 24 players here, most of them new to the club. The manager, George Burns, is all right. Manager Grover Alexander had anything to say on their possible agreement on terms.

Mack Names His Baseball Squad; Few Stars Left
PHILADELPHIA, March 16.—Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, last night announced for the first time the list of players from which he will build his team this year. The surprise in the list is the reappearance of Babe Ruth, who was a member of the Athletics when they were the world's champions. He quit baseball several years ago and engaged in farming in New South Jersey, but recently took up his residence in Philadelphia.

The list is as follows: Pitchers: Elmer Myers, Vean Gregg, William Adams, John Watson, Fred Freney, Robert Geary, Joseph Hauser. Catchers: James McAvoy, Foran, George Burns, Morris Shannon, Joseph Dugan, Larry Johnson, James Dykes, C. B. Davidson. Infielders: George Burns, Morris Shannon, Joseph Dugan, Larry Johnson, James Dykes, C. B. Davidson. Outfielders: Charles Jameson, Clarence Walker, Rube Oldring, Marlin Kopp.

Pitcher Adams, named in the list, was with the Richmond team of the International League last year. Watson was purchased from Fort Smith, Ark. Freney was with the Catholic North Carolina League. Hauser was with the Waupun semi-professional team.

"Welcome Home Day" for Jack Hendricks Planned by Chicago

CHICAGO, March 16. PLANS were perfected for a "welcome home day" to be given in honor of Jack Hendricks, manager of the St. Louis National team when he comes to the Chicago Cubs ball park April 24, were announced today.

Hendricks was formerly an assistant prosecuting attorney here.

Red Cross Gains $800 When Cueist Kieckhefer Wins
CHICAGO, March 16.—The American Billiard Players' ambulance fund was increased about $800 as a result of the match between Augie Kieckhefer of Chicago and Robert Canfield of St. Louis, which ended last night with the Chicagoan winning by a score of 150 to 142. Forty per cent of the game receipts were donated to the fund by the players.

Kieckhefer, by coming from behind in the final night's play and defeating Canfield, became the second man among the last six three-cushion champions to successfully defend the title. Five men held the championship ahead of Kieckhefer in the past two years, but with the exception of Alfredo de Oro, the Cuban, each lost it in the interest of the fund.

Kieckhefer will defend his title again some time in April, against Pierre Maupome of Cleveland. The match will be played in Chicago, following Maupome, George Oats of New York and De Oro will seek to gain the title.

Boxers Will Help Recreation Fund
Eddie Coulton Boosting Move to Benefit Soldiers at Camp Pike.

Jones, it will be remembered, has a copyrighted slogan which he uttered on a pleasant afternoon when in Havana, Cuba. It runs as follows: "Give me a good pitcher and one run, and I'll win any ball game."

He has since often mentioned the same words, and for this reason it has been taken for granted by those close to the Brownie leader that with a line-up possessed with speed and a reliable pitcher he is never in fear of being "unable to get the necessary run needed to win."

The players listed in the line-up for this afternoon's game exactly fit Jones' general scheme of play. The first five mentioned players are exceptionally fast. Tobin, Malsel, Sisler, Gedeon and Smith can all run the bases in record time. Hendrix, while not a slow man by any means, is not as fast as the others, but he is a top him in the line-up; but the former Yankee will more than make up for this lack of speed by long base knocks. Gerber cannot be classed as a 10-second man in getting around the running path, but Walter is one of the boys possessing the reputation of invariably coming through with the timely wallop. And Old Severid, the fans of St. Louis know that the hardest working catcher in the American League is not a sprinter, but they also know that Hank can clout the leather in a fashion to bring joy to their hearts. Enough said for Henry Severid.

The squad had only one practice session yesterday. Manager Jones telling his men they could lay off in the morning on account of cool weather. The squad got off to an early start in the afternoon, everyone reaching the park at 1:30. The boys put plenty of pep into their work.

George Sisler indulged in batting practice for an hour and then played first base. The peerless Sisler scooped up the slow drives and reached out for the wide throws, getting every thing and leading the fans present to believe that he had been playing ball all winter.

Pert Galia also took part in the practice. The former St. Louis hurler states that he is in good condition and ready for active duty on the mound, having practiced with the "boys" in his home town, Woodboro, Tex.

Only one player now remains out of the fold—Nick Gullop. No one in camp has heard a word from Nick. This southpaw seemingly seldom comes up for air, not having written any of his old teammates as to the reasons causing his delay in reporting.

YAMADA AND SCHAEFER EACH WIN CUE MATCH
Koji Yamada, former playing partner of Champion Willie Hoppe on his exhibition tours, and Young Jake Schaefer, son of the late "Wizard of the cue," played two exhibition contests at Arata's hall, yesterday. In the ballkline the Jap won in six innings, 20 to 195, with runs of 15, 45, 33, 27, 11 and 66. Schaefer made 8, 88, 92, 0, 5.

In the three-cushion game Schaefer defeated Yamada, 15 to 6, in 14 innings.

GIRL BASKET BALL FIVES TO START TITLE SERIES
The Mount Auburn Emeralds, winners of the Saturday division, and the St. Louis Girls of the Tuesday group, will start a three-game series to decide the girls' Municipal Basket Ball League championship. The contest will be played at the Sacred Heart Hall, Twenty-third and St. Louis avenue.

The games are expected to be hard fought as the two teams seem evenly matched.

LOCAL BARBERS BOOSTING BAT AND BALL FUND WORK
St. Louis Barbers have joined in a wide campaign to raise money for Clark Griffith's Bat and Ball Fund, so don't be surprised if your barber asks you to contribute an extra quarter on your check next time you have your locks trimmed.

Griffith has sent a list of St. Louisans who have contributed quarters to the fund through the solicitation of local barbers. It shows quite a tidy sum has been raised and the work has just begun.

Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, credit, Louis Bros. & Co., 24 E. 8th St., 8th St.—ADV.

'SPEED MERCHANTS' BASIS OF BROWNS' NEW BATTING LIST

First Five Men in Today's Opening Line-Up Should Prove Exceptionally Fast.

SHREVEPORT, La., March 16.—President Ball, owner, and Fielder Jones, manager, this afternoon will have their first opportunity of seeing the reconstructed St. Louis Browns in action upon the field in this city, when the Shreveport team of the Texas League is taken on.

Manager Jones said he expected to use all of his players in the contest. However, a good guess on the first batting order of the season, and one that may possibly be seen in action on April 6, when the Cardinals are met at the National League grounds, follows:

Tobin, right field. Malsel, third base. Sisler, first base. Gedeon, second base. Smith, left field. Hendrix, center field. Gerber, short. Severid, catcher. Shocker, pitcher.

From the above list of players it can easily be seen that the leader of the Browns still holds to his favorite idea regarding the general make up of a ball team, namely speed. Fielder firmly believes that a fleet-footed ball club, one that can get around the bases and score runs on the fewest hits is the proper combination for a winner.

Jones Rides His Hobby.
Jones, it will be remembered, has a copyrighted slogan which he uttered on a pleasant afternoon when in Havana, Cuba. It runs as follows: "Give me a good pitcher and one run, and I'll win any ball game."

He has since often mentioned the same words, and for this reason it has been taken for granted by those close to the Brownie leader that with a line-up possessed with speed and a reliable pitcher he is never in fear of being "unable to get the necessary run needed to win."

The players listed in the line-up for this afternoon's game exactly fit Jones' general scheme of play. The first five mentioned players are exceptionally fast. Tobin, Malsel, Sisler, Gedeon and Smith can all run the bases in record time. Hendrix, while not a slow man by any means, is not as fast as the others, but he is a top him in the line-up; but the former Yankee will more than make up for this lack of speed by long base knocks. Gerber cannot be classed as a 10-second man in getting around the running path, but Walter is one of the boys possessing the reputation of invariably coming through with the timely wallop. And Old Severid, the fans of St. Louis know that the hardest working catcher in the American League is not a sprinter, but they also know that Hank can clout the leather in a fashion to bring joy to their hearts. Enough said for Henry Severid.

The squad had only one practice session yesterday. Manager Jones telling his men they could lay off in the morning on account of cool weather. The squad got off to an early start in the afternoon, everyone reaching the park at 1:30. The boys put plenty of pep into their work.

George Sisler indulged in batting practice for an hour and then played first base. The peerless Sisler scooped up the slow drives and reached out for the wide throws, getting every thing and leading the fans present to believe that he had been playing ball all winter.

Pert Galia also took part in the practice. The former St. Louis hurler states that he is in good condition and ready for active duty on the mound, having practiced with the "boys" in his home town, Woodboro, Tex.

Only one player now remains out of the fold—Nick Gullop. No one in camp has heard a word from Nick. This southpaw seemingly seldom comes up for air, not having written any of his old teammates as to the reasons causing his delay in reporting.

WRAY'S COLUMN

World's Champion Business Man. JESS WILLARD'S pugilistic prowess may be in doubt, in the ring, some, but there is no question about his world's championship business sagacity. The hall mark of the born trader is on the which his representative put over on Mike Collins, at Kansas City.

According to these Willard is certain to receive not less than $30,000 for his share, even if the lowest bid on the market is accepted. On the other hand, if Willard promotes the affair himself, as is now believed his plan, he will reap a harvest of between two and three hundred thousand dollars. This belief is borne out by the receipts of the Jeffries-Johnson contest, held in an inaccessibly spot, Reno, Nev., when $275,000 was taken in at the gate.

For this battle the participants agreed to divide the purse $50 and 40 per cent, to the winner and loser, respectively, which gave Jeffries over $40,000 for being defeated, the total purse from that occasion being $101,000.

Willard thus, even if defeated, would have a $200,000 balm to soothe his wounded feelings. This, in addition to a fortune variously estimated at from $500,000 to $500,000 made in the circus business since he won the championship, would leave the giant Kansan perfectly satisfied with his financial future.

Willard, it must be said, did not receive anything but a few thousand dollars in the city of Canton, Ohio, where he was defeated. He took $150,000 behind on its all-out insistence; and that Lucas, Robert Von der Ahe all lost money.

But for every man who has lost money it must be mentioned that he has made it, and rapidly. He must be said, however, the Federal League's advent has done all that by sending "overboard" high. Furthermore, a club of $50,000, sufficient for a major club in 1902, must be making at least 10 today in order to be into the game. Thus the today faces large expenditures and low profits.

In the old days the man who made money in a big league club was a poor business man. Bob proved this to be a fact when he lost a war between leagues. He had a half of it for himself, in retiring after 13 years with a tune of $400,000—perhaps a Charley Murphy ran an investment of $105,000 up to $1,000,000, with half of it for himself, had gone in on borrowed money too.

All the good business men of ball have made money at the same time past they made it on the side. We are quite willing to admit, however, that today, although men are greater than 15 years ago, not often all major league clubs make good showings and adequate return on amount invested.

Capitalization has outgrown son. The Camp Funtun soccer which plays the St. Louis in the game at Cardinal Field tomorrow, will practice this morning at 10 o'clock, according to an announcement by Capt. E. F. Springer yesterday. The soldiers have recently made a trip to several Kansas towns, made good showings.

According to Richard (Bull) Nigan, former Leo manager, eleven is fully 50 per cent ahead of the first visit here. It was due mainly to the addition of Al at fullback, Freeman, halfback, Cassidy and McLean, forward, and latter two players come from son, Kan.

"The Leo's figure they will be a snap, but I am positive they are for a big surprise," said Springer yesterday.

The lineup of the team will be: Capt. Springer in goal; Ryan White, fullbacks; Royal Dwyer, Freeman, halfbacks; and Cassidy and McLean, forward, and O'Tool, Brannigan, Cassidy and Freeman, forwards.

RUDI MEYER DEPARTS
Rudi Meyer, one of the best in the city, who some time ago left the aviation corps, departed yesterday for Champaign, Ill., where he will attend the University of Illinois to taking up the flying end.

Soldan to Play Cleveland Team to Hold Practice
Interscholastic Basketball Fives Meet in First Game of Play-Off Series.

The first game of the play-off series to decide the championship of the Interscholastic Basketball League will be played at the Cleveland stadium tonight, when Cleveland tackles Soldan. The following Saturday Cleveland will play Central, while the series comes to a close on March 30, when Soldan meets Central.

The play-off became necessary when the three quintets finished up the regular season last Saturday in a triple tie, each aggregation having won five and lost three contests.

For tonight's clash, Soldan is favored to beat Coach Mack's outfit. Cleveland started the campaign in great fashion, but slowed down toward the finish. Just the opposite is true of Soldan. The West Enders started poorly and came with a rush at the finish. In the two battles between the pair during the regular season, Soldan was returned the victor each time.

Today's game both teams will have their full lineups in the fray. Cleveland will have Placke and Whitbred forward, Lippert at center, with Krashe and Schurz playing the guards. Soldan's battle front will show French and Smith, forwards; Calhoun, center, and Gaszolo and Schuster, guards.

Boxer's Intent Is to Make It's All Right.
It's all right, Bo—they even your neck at wrestling times. It's the toughest and brutal of all pugilistic sports, yet they'll never bar it for a good reason—the rules of the do NOT contemplate injury and provide against undue fouling. With boxing it's another matter. There the intent of the sport is to jure the opponent or deprive consciousness by physical force. In all other sports injury is a deterrent to and not a principle of the game.

The main indictment against boxing is that it injures the deaths and serious accidents are more frequent in baseball, swimming and other sports than that the object of the sport is to inflict physical damage on the opponent.

Is Baseball Profitable?
It is supposed to be getting on with big profits, but the owner is willing to attempt it. He cites the fact that the Walsh lost thousands backing Cubs before he sold out to Murphy; that the Cincinnati took $150,000 behind on its all-out insistence; and that Lucas, Robert Von der Ahe all lost money.

But for every man who has lost money it must be mentioned that he has made it, and rapidly. He must be said, however, the Federal League's advent has done all that by sending "overboard" high. Furthermore, a club of $50,000, sufficient for a major club in 1902, must be making at least 10 today in order to be into the game. Thus the today faces large expenditures and low profits.

One of Am Biddle, of Ph marines. He

Aclose machine fire 33.0

A Sunda organ

doubt, in the minds of the world's championship baseball players, the champion is on the terms at Kansas City.

ment is to Main.

nt. Bo—they even break back at wrestling, some of the toughest and most punishing sports. He never bar it for one very—the rules of the game contemplate injury and they must undue fouling. ing it's another main-ent of the sport is to the potent or deprive him of as by physical violence sports injury is an in- not a principle of the indictment against base- that injuries result, for serious accidents are frequent in baseball, football and other pastimes; it is the object of the sport is to do damage on an op-

Profitable?

ball magnate is popular, posed to be getting away profits, but one club willing to attempt to refute the fact that "John E. thousands backing the he sold out to Chicago at the Cincinnati club is behind on its all time- that Lucas, Robison and all lost money."

every man who lost money mentioned that several it, and rapidly, too. he said, however, that the league's advent has changed sending "overhead" sky "thermo's," a capital of efficient for a big league 02, must be multiplied by today in order to break ame. Thus the investor a large expenditures and days the man who lost a big league club was a less man. Bob Hedges to be a fact when, in the war between leagues, he 00 and rammed his way after 13 years with a for- $400,000—perhaps more. Murphy ran an investment 0 up to $1,000,000, and half of it for himself—he in on borrowed money.

good business men of base- made money at the game at they made big money. He willing to admit, how- today, although receipts than 15 years ago, it is all major league clubs can adequate return on the vested. tion has outgrown res-

Kickers Hold Practice

Is Confident That Will Make Good Showing Against Leos.

up Funston soccer team, the St. Leo in the fe- at Cardinal Field tomorrow practice this morning at 10 according to an announce- apt. E. F. Springer yesterday- bidders have recently made several Kansas towns and showings.

g to Richard (Bull) Brann- mer Leo manager, the fully 50 per cent stronger first visit here. This is y to the addition of White t, Freeman, halfback, and and McLean, forwards. The players come from Scrapp-oe figure they will have a I am positive they are in surprise," said Brannig-up of the team will show iger in goals Ryan and backer, Royal Dwyer and halfbacks, and Kehrman, Hannigan, Cassidy and Pre- ards.

MEYER DEPARTS.

yer, one of the best bowlers who some time ago joined on corps, departed yesterday- campaign, Ill., where he will University of Illinois prior up the firing end.

One of America's richest men, A.J. Drexel Biddle, of Philadelphia, as a private in the marines. He is waiting for his 'chow'.

A close view of the new centrifugal force machine gun, which its inventors claim will fire 33,000 shots a minute. © U.S.U.

Image of the Savior riddled with bullets and torn from its cross by German soldiers in a French village. © KADEL & HERBERT.

These two old ladies are happy because they were rescued from the Germans by British troops during a battle. One is telling her experiences to a French gendarme. © U.S.U.

A Sunday morning with American troops in France. This photo shows merely the organist and choir; just beyond is an entire regiment gathered for worship.

The Kaiser conversing with Emperor Charles of Austria at a little railway station on the Italian front.

Not so very long ago she was a school girl, with braids down her back. New portrait of Princess Mary of England, now a woman and taking a woman's part in the war.

There was a movement to destroy this statue of Frederick the Great in Washington, but it has been allowed to remain. © Euck.

London firemen have adopted the steel helmet. They afford protection during air raids from falling shrapnel.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

Founded by JOSEPH PULTZER

Dec. 12, 1878.

Published by the Pultzer Publishing Co.

Twelfth and Olive Streets

POST-DISPATCH CIRCULATION

Average for entire year, 1917:

Sunday, 361,263

Daily and Sunday, 194,593

THE POST-DISPATCH sells more papers

in St. Louis and suburbs every day in the year than there are homes in the city.

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

All rights of republication of special dispatches

herein are also reserved.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL IN ADVANCE

Daily and Sunday, one year, $10.00

Daily only, one year, $7.00

Sunday only, one year, $4.00

Remit either by postal order, express money order or St. Louis exchange.

In St. Louis and suburbs, per month, 50c

Carrier, Out of St. Louis, per month, 60c

Entered at postoffice, St. Louis, Mo., as second-class matter.

Bell, Olive 6800 Kinloch, Central 6600

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight

for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party,

always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent, never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

JOSEPH PULTZER.

April 10, 1907.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Grocery Clerks' Long Hours.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Now that the grocery clerks are striking,

why not ask for shorter hours. My husband gave up a good position indoors to work in a grocery store on account of his health. His employer was kind, but the long hours were simply awful. We started a store of our own and employ a clerk and butcher. Now we, remembering how much

my husband would have liked to work shorter hours, would like to close early,

but we have a few competitors who are the job early and late. We have about 60 per cent union people among our trade.

Now we are compelled to open at 5:30 and stay open until 7 o'clock, and a good many complain because we don't stay open later.

There is no reason why a store of any kind should open before 7 o'clock. They could close at 6 p. m. Anybody that cannot get what they need between those hours is absolutely without consideration for others. I have heard many a woman say right in our store that her husband

wouldn't work for anyone over eight hours, but she expects her grocery man to work 17 hours on Saturday. I am sorry to say that the union people are just as bad

as the others.

Some grocery men will say they cannot get their orders out in time. Let them hire more help. We can, and we are not worrying about our help leaving us, as they both receive a good salary and are treated fairly.

Give everybody a square deal. We are living a short while and a long time dead,

so we ought to enjoy life while we are here.

A GROCERYMAN'S WIFE.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Kindly give this a small space in your paper, if possible.

Wanted—Any donation of athletic or musical instruments will be gratefully received and help cheer the hearts of many

Missouri boys in camp.

CORP. W. R. LAGES.

Co. B, 323 F. S. B., Camp Funston, Kan.

City Can Help Thrift Gardeners.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Above the entrance at the city hall we note: "Food will win the war." It's an excellent reminder. I do think every man, woman and child is not only earnestly striving to conserve food, but to increase the supply. We who have back yards suitable for gardening are going to raise vegetables for ourselves and our neighbors.

But what is the city doing to increase the food supply? She can and is helping hand if she so desires. For instance, many gar-

THE TWO U. R. PLANS.

The plan for the temporary relief of the United Railways during the period of exceptional war demands and the plan to confer on it new franchises with a life of 31 years are separate and distinct propositions.

The franchise ordinance, with changes that by no means improve it, has been sent by the City Public Service Commissioners to the Board of Aldermen for approval. Is it hoped by pressing the two plans simultaneously to confuse the public mind? They should be entirely dissociated.

So far as it provides for the remission of taxes

that hamper the quality of service and payment of better wages to employees, the relief plan has merit, as the Post-Dispatch has pointed out. But, as the Post-Dispatch has also pointed out, the franchise grabbing plan violates the fundamental conditions on which a grant of this character should be bestowed.

What justifiable relief from pressing problems of the present is afforded by the 31-year grab that will not be afforded by the arrangement to continue only during war time? The company itself can hardly pretend that there is more than one problem not provided for by the temporary plan.

This is the problem of the $3,235,000 in underlying bonds that will fall due in coming months.

But that point has already been exhaustively covered by City Engineer S. C. E. Smith, whose judgment on various phases of the United Railways' tangled affairs has often been quoted in favor of the company's contentions. He has shown that the United Railways is making a net profit of $1,200,000, more than 10 per cent on the appraisal of several years ago and a very handsome per cent on the valuation proposed in the ordinance.

He has also shown that after the remission of $415,000 in special taxes the company will have ample funds to pay an increase of 5 cents an hour to its men. He has shown then an advance of 10 cents an hour in wages will still allow a return of 5.8 per cent on the value of the city lines.

Asked how he would pay off the maturing bonds,

he replied, disclaiming any intention of posing

as an astute financier:

I would realize on the $1,700,000 of Government bonds and the $1,600,000 of company securities in the treasury, and then I would ask the bankers interested in the United Railways securities to furnish whatever balance is needed on short-term notes. . . . You are on the verge of bankruptcy because of lack of harmony among your own interests and not for want of earnings. Riders on street cars should not be penalized because the company is not able to meet its obligations.

And the public believes that the problem is so simple as to be solvable in just that way, without any resort to frenzied finance or astute financing ability.

If the city administration insists on jamming

this vicious measure through, it will do so with a full knowledge of conditions which show that it is unnecessary and which have been clearly set forth by one of its own appointees. The company's finances do not justify the grab any more than adequate pay for its men justifies an increase in fares.

Let the bankers interested in the company's securities come to its rescue, just as the bankers interested in railroad systems do when temporary embarrassment ensues. No municipal rights or public assets should be bartered to facilitate their promotion of stock-jobbing deals.

A PRODUCER ON FOOD CONTROL.

"Food administration has controlled prices in the interest of the consumer," E. L. Burke told the Senate Agricultural Committee. As Mr. Burke

is identified with livestock interests, this ex-parte view may be natural. On the other hand, the consumer, without any regard for interests other than his own, might entertain the opinion that the producer had had more than the consideration to which he is entitled. The price of wheat has been fixed at a figure that would have reduced the producer of the Civil War, making allowance for the inflated currency in which he was paid. To conserve wheat for war associates abroad the consumer must buy with every purchase of wheat flour a designated amount of the flour of other grains and the price of these other flours is certainly remunerative to producers or to somebody. At least they are not made cheap to the consumer and exceed even the price of wheat flour.

Confidence in the food administration has not been weakened by the demagogic attacks of prejudicial politicians. It is not going to be weakened by the complaints of those with a selfish interest in forcing present high prices to still higher levels.

PERIL OF THE NEW CRUSADES.

The world will be very anxious until it learns what the new dispositions of forces made possible to Potsdam by the peace with two enemies

mean for the allied command that has reclaimed

a large area of the Holy Land from the Turks.

While we do not know the size of this command, it has been repeatedly referred to as achieving a surprising success, in view of its moderate strength. We must assume accordingly that material reinforcements for the enemy would make the problem of maintaining itself a very serious

one.

Since the capture of Jerusalem it has been apparently operating on an east and west line of some extent and moving toward the north. The most easterly of the points mentioned in last

Sunday's advance is El Aujeh, which the map shows to be located directly to the north of Jericho, whose capture was recorded some days ago, and about 20 miles distant. The westerly portion of the line has also been advancing steadily,

occupying divers places to the north and east of Jerusalem.

These advances of from one to three miles on a front of from 15 to 18 miles, which are referred to from time to time in the dispatches, have

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

This column is designed to represent without bias the latest comment by the leading publicists, newspapers and generals on the questions of the day.

A BRITISH VIEW OF US.

OUR Washington correspondent sent yesterday some account of the war preparations which she has made and making, even without this stimulus. There are on a scale unparalleled in the history of the world. This freest of self-governing democracies is raising hosts more numerous than those fabled of the mighty among Asiatic conquerors. Already she has at her command over a million and half of picked troops, and the number are assured, can be steadily raised to 10,000,000 conscripts are in line. Mr.

Baker, the Secretary of War, promises

more than 500,000 soldiers under the stars and stripes will be arrayed in France in the present year. The men are of the finest which the hundred millions of American citizens can yield, and it is added that they can be sent over fully equipped. Equipment is really of very secondary importance in the actual situation. What was wanted on this side are the men. We and our French allies have plenty of equipment ready for any number which can be dispatched for the next campaign. More than 60,000 officers, chosen from the most able and energetic people in the world,

IT IS AGREED

JUST A MINUTE

Written for the POST-DISPATCH

by Clark McAdams

OUR OWN WAR REVIEW.

WE are not sure that we know just how the war is going, but the impression is growing throughout the paper that the Kaiser has gotten about all he is going to get.

While this is a good deal, and perhaps even more than the Kaiser expected, it doesn't seem to worry

the more stable minds in the paper as one might think it would. That is one thing about our side

we can't help liking—it doesn't know when it is licked. It gives us more hope than anything else.

As Socrates pointed out the other day when it was being discussed by the editorial staff and its aides,

the distinguishing trait in all the great fighters who have left their impress upon life.

Unquestionably the Kaiser did win the war up to the point where its complete complexion was changed by the appearance of America on the scene.

He had the first page scaled down to a thin line of British and French at the bottom, the Russians had all been cleared off Pages 2 and 3, the Italians were rolled up like a carpet on the right side of Page 4,

and a submarine was coming up in the river column

and taking a ship down with it every four hours.

However, as Answers says, the war isn't going to be suddenly awarded to somebody on points. It is going to be a knockout, and either the paper will be at the end entirely English, without German

ERROR of OPINION

designed to reproduce latest comment by the newspapers and periodicals of the day.

VIEW OF US.

A correspondent sent me an account of the vast she has made and is out this stimulus. They paralleled in the history of freest of self-governing hosts more numerous of the mightiest conquerors. Already she and over a million and a half, and the number, we are steadily raised until the tips are in line. Mr. of War, promises that soldiers under the Stars and Stripes in France early in the year. The men are of the hundred millions of America, and it is added that over fully equipped of very secondary importance. What is the situation. We are the men. We are plenty of equipment which can be distributed. More than people in the world, out of the training that number are being all sorts is being man- provision has been made millions of shells. She been devoted to aircraft, he asked for more than this arm alone. Great in the American type, the Lib- observers are being in the specially favor- High America presents are of a like colossal y, which has always to be one of the fighting forces. It been expanded at since 1914, and Mr. Ford from German war meth- expects to be present- new submarine chasers at day. The Americans see, the one thing supremely sure the safe and rapid army and its stores. Ships and more ships, they hope, in 1918, to launch the enormous, 5,000,000 tons of steel before the year is out. 600,000 tons of ex- the use of a considerable shipping. The German Foreign Affairs is so the prospect that they over a hundred thousand that he charges them with hidden robbery" and are scarcely veiled to the acquisition would be wrong; it would be termination, the victo do more than men- figures in America's war raised $1,000,000,000 of which were heavily out of this she has 10,000,000. She is help- the latest commitments respondent declares, are off the plates of the She has made blun- in starting and in orga- gigantic schemes which requires. She is the first man who never makes takes anything" is a true comes, we believe from. We made mistakes, in the earlier part of the America has our sad ex- from, she has, like every bodies to work out her own the shoulders of the Pres- indeed, "it to bear the best monarchies," the imately rests. He sup- and only yesterday he Senate a bill asking for eliminating various Govern- which is designed to. But even Mr. Wilson obtain the best possible It takes time, as Lin- over the most competent responsible posts. But have been made no more American people than our encouraged us. They know are inevitable when a wholly given over to the of peace, is plunged. They make allowances; What you have done ab- the French High Com- American audience the significant; worthy of your yourselves." It is magni- we greatly mistake the It is but little compared mean to do. They are soul, and that is the cer- victory and of a true and Personally I do not incline to this view, but I do believe that at Konopisht the war of 1914 was finally agreed on. Too many bits of evidence point to this, and from something said to me at Kiel by a very high personage, before the assassinations at Sarajevo. I would have guessed that war was coming, had it not been impossible for me to believe that the world was to be plunged into war simply because the German people were restless under the rule of at- tory.

When the murders occurred at Sarajevo all plans had been laid for war, and the death of Franz Ferdi- nand and the Duchess of Hohenberg merely gave another excuse to begin hostilities, after Austria, in the Council of Potsdam, had ratified all the arrangements made by the Emperor Wilhelm and Franz Ferdinand for the European war. Undoubtedly the German Emperor used his influence with Franz Ferdinand and his wife in order to secure the former's aid in dragging Austria into the war—a war begun to win the dominion of the world.

How many in America have heard the name of Stephen Tisza? Yet the ambitions of this woman have done much to send to war the splendid youths who from all ends of the earth gather in France to fight the fight of freedom.

The clever German Emperor, play- ing upon her ambitions, induced the gloomy, hated Franz Ferdinand to consent to the world war, and mat- ters had gone so far that even the death of the Archduke Franz Ferdi- nand could not change the situation nor turn the war party of Hungary and Austria from their program of blood. Eighty-four years of age, the old Francis Joseph could only offer a weak defense to the martial instig- ation of Tisza, Premier of Hungary, and his able understrapper, For- gotich, who represented him in the Foreign Office at Vienna, and who undoubtedly is the man who drafted the 48-hour ultimatum to Serbia.

Kaiser Planned a Great Continental Empire With Thrones for His Sons

Gerard Believes the War Conspiracy Was Hatched by Wilhelm, Meeting With Franz Ferdinand at Konopisht in 1914, and Submits Supporting Evidences.

This is the twenty-first installment of Mr. Gerard's new book, "Face to Face with Kaiserism" which will be printed in full in the Post-Dispatch. An installment will appear daily, including Sundays until the entire volume is presented. Mr. Gerard did not use half of his observations and experiences while at the German Court in "My Four Years in Germany" (which the Post-Dispatch printed in serial form also), and his new book is quite as interesting as was his first.

By JAMES W. GERARD,

American Ambassador at the German Imperial Court, July 23, 1913, to Feb. 4, 1917, and Author of "My Four Years in Germany."

Copyright, 1918, by Public Ledger Co. Copyright Canada, 1918, by Public Ledger Co.

CHAPTER XXI.

IN THE chapter on Emperor Wilhelm I have stated the belief prevalent, even in Germany, that he intended as his first step toward his openly expressed ambition for world dominion to make himself, on the death of Francis Joseph, Emperor of a great continental empire in which the German princes, his sons, should occupy the throne of Hungary and Bohemia, the heir of the House of Austria rule as king or grand duke of Austria with possibly another German-ruled kingdom touching the sea on the south.

There are some who believe that when the Kaiser, accompanied by Von Tirpitz, visited Franz Ferdinand at Konopisht in June, 1914, before the Kiel week, that a great conspir- acy was entered into, in which it was arranged that a great Central Empire should be created with one of the sons of the Emperor of Hohenzollern on the throne of Bohemia and the other provided for by some newly carved-out kingdom made from Bosnia or a portion of Serbia. And it may have been part of this plot that Eitel Fritz and other sons of the Kaiser should be provided with thrones de- rived from Balkan territory.

It will be remembered that as Franz Ferdinand and his wife fell under the assassin's bullet at Sarajevo he called out, "Sophie, live for our children!" His devotion to his wife and to their children was ex- traordinary. He was continually sparing from his income so that on his death his sons would have a large sum of money, saved from the in- come of estates which they could not inherit.

It is hard to believe that such a crime against the House of Haps- burg and against his own coun- try was contemplated from the in- side of royalty. But one event seems a confirmation of this theory. The dead Franz Ferdinand and his wife were buried with such pomp, as to lead to the belief that the head of the House of Hapsburg, Emperor Franz Joseph himself, without whose directions the Chamberlain, Count Montenuovo, would not have dared to act, discovered his heir in some act against the laws or fortunes of the imperial house.

At Konopisht Great War Planned

For the funeral arrangements were such that the Austrian and Hun- garian aristocracy were moved to protest, and as a result a belated or- der was issued directing that the troops of the Vienna garrison should take part in the funeral ceremonies. About 150 members of the leading families of Hungary and Austria, without invitation, entered the funeral procession and followed the bodies to the railway station. The London Times correspondent called attention to this in cables to his newspaper at the time.

Andrassy came to Berlin during the war, where I had several long talks with him. The one desire of Hungarians and Austrians alike is for peace, but surrounded by the armies of their German masters, they have lost their independence of action, a bitter blow to the Magyars, who are not fond of the Germans.

Count Stephen Tisza is an obstinate and able man, so many-sided that it is related of him that he fought a duel, rode a steppelchase and made a great speech in Parlia- ment all in one day.

Duelling is still a custom in Hun- gary, Austria and Germany. Once when I was in Hungary I took sup- per with a Count who had been second in a duel that day. One young Magyar was at a restaurant with an actress who wore a wide-brimmed hat. Another young Mag- yar of his acquaintance looked under the hatbrim to see who the girl was. Result, a duel with sabers in a riding school. On this occasion, as the result of him that he fought a duel, rode a steppelchase and made a great speech in Parlia- ment all in one day.

Tisza's Heavy Responsibility.

A great responsibility lies at the door of Stephen Tisza. He allowed the Germans to use him in bringing the world war upon the world. Doubtless he be- lieved that Russia and the Powers would not move, that Austria-Hun- gary could seize or invade Serbia, while Germany terrorized the world as in 1908, when Bosnia and Herzeg- ovina were added to the Imperial dominions. But his failure to read the intentions of Russia and the other Powers is no excuse for the calam- ity he brought upon Hungary and the world, no excuse for the fact that his country is now overwhelmed by Kai- serism, its armies surrounded by the armies of Germany and its very in- dependence threatened by the subtle influence and intrigues of the inas- surable intriguer of the world—the German Kaiser.

In a country where the majority

The Song of the Lathes

(Being the Words of the Tune Hummed at Her Lathe by Mrs. L. Embsay, Widow.)

—BY RUDYARD KIPLING—

Copyright, 1918, by Rudyard Kipling. Copyright, 1918, by Public Ledger Co.

THE fans and the beltings they roar round me.
The power is shaking the floor round me,
Till the lathes pick up their duty and the midnight shift takes over.
It is good for me to be here.

Guns in Flanders—Flanders guns
(I had a man that worked 'em once);
Shells for guns in Flanders, Flanders;
Shells for guns in Flanders, Flanders;
Shells for guns in Flanders;
Feed the guns.

The cranes and the carriers they boom over me.
The bays and the galleries they loom over me,
With their quarter-mile of pillars growing little in the distance.
It is good for me to be here.

The Zeppelins and the Gothas they raid over us.
Other lights give warning, and fade over us (Seven thousand women keeping quiet in the darkness);
Oh, it's good for me to be here!

The roofs and the buildings they grow round me,
Eating up the fields I used to know round me,
And the shed that I began in is a hub inspector's office;
So long have I been here.

I've seen six hundred mornings make our lamps grow dim
Through the bit that isn't painted round our skylight rim.
And the sunlight through the window slope according to the seasons
Twice since I've been here.

The trains on the sidings they call to us,
With the hundred thousand castings that they haul to us.
And we send 'em what we've finished and they take it where it's wanted,
For that is why we are here.

Man's hate will pass as his love will pass.
God made woman what she always was.
Them that bear the burden they will never grant forgiveness
So long as they are here.

Once I was a woman, but that's by with me,
All I loved and looked for, it must die with me.
But the Lord has left me over for a servant of the Judgment,
And I serve his Judgments here.

Guns in Flanders—Flanders guns
(I had a son that worked 'em once);
Shells for guns in Flanders, Flanders;
Shells for guns in Flanders, Flanders;
Shells for guns in Flanders;
Feed the guns.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

By MRS. F. A. WALKER.

Mr. Fox and the Spyglass.

ONE day while Mr. Fox was saun- tering slowly along the road, wondering if he would be able to get a good dinner at the next farm, he intended to visit, he saw some- thing lying by the roadside. He had no idea what it was, but when he put his eye at one end he found he could see plainly what was quite a distance away.

"This must be a spyglass," said Mr. Fox looking very pleased indeed, and it is just what I need in my business; I can tell when it is safe to visit the farmyards in the daytime."

Off trotted Mr. Fox for home as fast as he could go, and when he reached his house he climbed up a ladder to the roof and looked through the spyglass.

and chickens unguarded and then he came down from the roof and care- fully put away the spyglass.

It did not take him long to reach the farm and bring back two fat hens, which he locked in his cellar. Then he ran back for two more. Be- fore long he had six fat hens in his cellar, and then he thought he had better take a look through the glass to see if the farmer was on his way home, and that is where Mr. Fox got into trouble! He looked through the wrong end of the glass and saw the farmer and his dog a very long way off.

"Oh, I shall have time to get there and get away before he reaches home," said Mr. Fox, and off he ran like a streak for the farm.

But poor Mr. Fox was not as clever as he usually was. He did not stop to listen or look. He made straight for the barnyard and there was the farmer and Mr. Dog.

Mr. Dog spied him and gave a sharp bark, at the same time jump- ing almost on Mr. Fox, who just

BEST CARTOON.

(Australia) Bulletin.

Let the Wedding Bells Ring Out

All Bets Off.
MISS ELDER: I'll bet you a hundred that I'll never marry.
Mr. Elder: I'll take you.
Miss Elder (rapturously): Will you, really? Then I won't bet, after all.—Boston Transcript.

J. ALEXANDER O'HARA MCKNIGHT WAS DRESSED TO PERFECTION EACH DAY AND EACH NIGHT,

THE PEOPLE ALL FOLLOWED ALONG BY HIS SIDE TO SEE THE FINE MANSION THAT HE OCCUPIED;

T. HERMAN GAZINKUS, THE STORY NOW GOES, LOOKED SADLY IN NEED OF SOME FOOD AND SOME CLOTHES,

THE GANG LOOKED HIM OVER AND SAID WITH A FROWN, "HE MUST LIVE IN A SHANTY THAT'S ALL FALLING DOWN"—

BUT HARK! LET US PAUSE WHILE WE TURN UP THE LIGHT, AND GAZE AT THE HOME OF O'HARA MCKNIGHT—

THE SECRETS OF LIFE NATURE ROGUSH HIDES, FOR HERE IS WHERE HERMAN GAZINKUS RESIDES.

MUTT AND JEFF—EGGSACTLY.—By BUD FISHER.

"SAY, POP!"—REALIZATION NEVER MEASURES UP TO EXPECTATION.—By PAYNE.

VOLUNTEER VIC

By LEMEN

PENNY ANTE—When a Guy Gets a Tall Stack Built Up

By Jean Knott

Soc
VOL. 70. NO.
Ge
Unsha
Though the
From M
From a
No Ind
Even T
the Ove
For five months
Germany's borders,
day conditions in the
every phase—man
effects of embargo, p
of information con
A Staff Correspond CHANGING G
which the sh
now wavers
toward the downwa cline. The metam mum of fighting p culty: beyond lies No department
with a clearly defin
der iron discipline brought to dramati
perfectly organize many's resources,
ing on indefinitely
inventoried, card i
It is as if bank
Receiver War, had reorganization, em
now available as w pared (and still pr
crop failure or cat
ties of peace comp
The carefully
elements of streng
as follows:
LIAB
Food shortage.
Transportation
Coal shortage.
Non-military rav
Non-military ma
Progressive dep
Progressive dep
material.
Miscellaneous
Economic attrit
Inflation and h
Pyramided war
America's entry
CONTINGEN
Decisive crop
Decisive milita
These are the ph
of Germany weighed too, that they are al its not yet visible, o able certainty, exce
coal shortage, whe
virtually been reach tion, whose present unbearable light: a of world war mathe
ing the fascinating
Germany hold out?
tors of weakness, th
interconnected; so of strength—a cha worse, directly or i America
And there is eve reciprocal relation be credit items. The seem far fetched b war is already a (one of many), in c
ing "race outside" b fallen over 40 per c
peace, year), until man war labyrinth
up facts here and chal; America's through embargo turned neutral im asset for German solid imports to th
The bulk of the